CELEBRATING 75 YEARS AT THE REALM

This was Robin Hood's 75th Anniversary year, and we celebrated with a three-day happening for a grand group of alumni who returned to the Realm. We played, we laughed and we recounted Robin Hood experiences of days gone by. It was great!

And so was our 2002 camp season - a "hot" one in every respect! We, too, played and sang and laughed a lot as we prayed for a day of rain or cool temperatures in the 80's. We had cookouts, a wonderful beach day, new friends galore, and a second 4 weeks that took off after parents' weekend with G & W and excursions. It flew to a conclusion with bonfires, a final show and our award banquet.

The big show was a smash hit - "Guys and Dolls"; the final show was a smash hit - "A Tribute to NY". And all the while our intercamp teams played well and had fun with the trophies coming from our track team, the 13 & under boys basketball team, the 13 & 15 & under girls softball teams, the 12, 14 & 16 & under rifle teams, and the 13 & 15 & under girls basketball teams. Congrats to all who contributed so much to every aspect of our camp season!

This year it will be cooler and the grass will be green when we see you on opening day, June 26th, 2003.

"PJ's on the BIZZIES!" That was the familiar song that was often sang and rarely followed by the TPJ's of 2002. With most of last year's graduating to Squires, this was the year for the Saxons of 2009 to come together and establish themselves, and that's what you did. Kris "Lean and Lean" Boehm, A.C., Maximus, Vito, Sam "Look at Me" Lee, Nicolas "Master Race" Messier, GOOOmyer, B-Snyds, M. Sez, A. Sez, B. "What" Taylor, and Little Little Woody. This group of mutual party people wasted no time taking the Realm by storm. So sit back, relax, and prepare yourselves to be pulled back into the summer of 2002.

The summer kicked off ironically enough with a game of can ... kick the can that is. Maxim wins big, but where is Sam Lee and why does Brandon Sneider keep missing the can? Brandon Taylor was the only one who was not allowed to be it. A whole new world of fun has been opened up to Nicolas unlike SPUD, or should I say SPONGE. Remember Kris' definition of sketchy and all of his counselor stories from last year, Gustavo losing his shoes but managing to find them when another pair was on the way, shooting Dicker and Brad with flu-flu arrows at archery, James stealing his brother's stuff, Sam Lee is the master of mosquito bites, A.C. thinking Dicker was his dad the first night, Maxim's Hawaiian shirts, the Newmyer paint incident, Michael dethroning Brad at limbo, Mike Sez and A.C.'s dis fight, and all of Woody's cats, not to mention the ever popular counselor discretionary expulsion policy. Who could forget all of the TPJ songs such as Nicolas' "The shower is burning," and the Szewczyk's, "Crafts is better than anything else." There was also Brandon Taylor's talking shoes, Mike winning best dressed at the social, but Woody gets the girl, Gustavo breaking the flagpole, Mike Sez and Brandon Sneider stealing the talent show with the shadow puppets.

Remember our many trips out of camp? The first of many of an unprecedented number of nights out for the TPJ group was the trip out to the movies. Lilo and Stitch vs. Scooby Doo: the match up of the century. Remember Brandon Taylor was scared even though he had already seen it, so he felt the need to prepare his counselors for every upcoming part of the movie, learning what a "hey lodi" was on the bus ride there while the staff takes the other bus. The next outing was mini golf and once again, a bus ride was taken to Pirate's Cove.

The Bear helps Dicker out in the staff game and Kris accidentally steals the club. And no one could forget the line up of TPJ Squires against the trees in the back of the parking lot - "Greetings from Camp Robin Hood." And finally there was ice-skating where the French connection of Maxim ran the show. Remember when Adam Sez wasn't playing with a ball, Brandon Taylor was first to activities, Kris wasn't drawing, Maxim wasn't smiling, Fernando was here, Gustavo wasn't up to something, Sam wasn't asking questions, Nicolas wasn't asking what was for evening activity, James wasn't falling, Mike Sez wasn't trying to get a girl, Brandon Sneider was last on the benches and Woody was first? WE DON'T!!!

Remember saying goodbye to the four weekers - Nicolas, Sam, Maxim, and Brandon Taylor. Two new additions: James and Andrew. Quickly after that, Green and White breaks with the plane and the fire truck. A.C. walks into the Realm and picks up a captain spot for white along with Brandon Sneider for the green team. White won by a small margin, but everyone had a good time. Where was Brad? Once all the Green and White intensity died down, excursion followed shortly. We started off at the alpine slides of Artirash. Remember holding up the entire line at the top? Then off to bowling, staff and campers alike. Remember the easiest claw game in the world and the attendant who became our new best friend? Then we went to the campsite for fajitas and Smores. We then had some after dinner skit entertainment courtesy of the PJ Squire talent show. John Klein enjoyed it thoroughly. We woke up to a donut breakfast than off to the Lost River Cave tour. Then we hit up some mini-gold, all leading up to MIB II and a fast food dinner. All in all, it was a successful trip.

Fellas, it has been quite a trip. You all are great kids with hearts of gold. The group ran like clockwork, but that would not be possible without the help of your staff. Mike - Although you were dedicated to the Drama department the majority of the time, you came up huge when you were needed. The kids (and staff) would not have made it to a meal, woken up, or fallen asleep without your help. You are great with the kids and I wish you luck. Jonah - You had the hardest job in camp and anyone who did not realize that is blind. You were the first year aide for the most difficult age group in camp. You had to step it up and you did. You are an exceptional counselor and the kids love you. Nothing but love and please keep coming back. Keep in touch with each other boys and keep coming back for as long as possible. You are at the beginning of an incredible journey that will change your life. The sooner you realize that and join as a group, the better. You are all well on your way. PEACE. - Dicker & Brad ☺☺

Aahite fellahs, SQUIRES ON THE BENCH-hes. We're headed back to your summer of 2002. Think back on a group of young men, 12 strong at its peak, who took Junior camp by storm and, of course, played a lot of Ugoogio (or something like that). Let's see, there was Mark "NOOOO" Choi, Vincent "Bin-sant" Cloutier, Bruno "Brunito" Gastelum, Ryan "The Professor" Globus, Aaron "C-Walk" Haynes, Alvaro "Picasso" Llanza, Juan Pablo "JP" Pedre, Guillermo "Gi-ger-mo/babyface/Buddah" Sanchez, Daniel "Sheiney" Sheinman, Jeremy "Jer-bear" Slossberg, Alex "I already did it" Weiss and Alex "letters by lunch" Wolf. Not a bad crew!

Man oh man, were you such a funny group! Remember when Bruno made a urinal of Winaukee's left field, or Mark Choi's stunning performance of Eminem at the talent show? How about Vincent's flowers during football, soccer, baseball, etc.? How about Aaron Haynes the ladies' man? Let's see, Lili AND Maria? Artaboy!

Remember when Alvaro wasn't fighting about a game of yugio, or when Alex Wolf wasn't with his sister at meals, or when Alex Weiss' area wasn't a mess? How about when Ryan Globus wasn't wearing that green shirt with the Samurai on the front, or when Guillermo wasn't at watersports after finally doing his sixteen laps? Remember when Jeremy Slossberg wasn't talking about "Blue-Eyes Ultimate", remember that? WE DON'T!

Remember the trip to the campground the first week. Thanks Drew, I'm still scared of the Archangel! A million games of Monarch Ball in the first four, I think we averaged two a day for at least two weeks. Trip mini-golfing, a few lost balls, no biggie! Trip to the beach, a little rainy, but again, NO BIGGIE. You guys still managed to salvage a good time.

Great Green & White as well fellahs. Congrats to Bruno and JP the captains, with Alex Wolf as JP's self-appointed co-captain. Even though the White PJ-Squires almost swept every event, the Green PJ-Squires played hard, kept good spirit, had fun, and more importantly, kept it out of the bunk. Then there was excursion, after lazy day that is, WHEN YOU WOKE US UP AT 6:30!!!! Excursion was a blast with some alpine sliding, smores (thanks to Cindy, the best bus-driver EVER, next to Dave), Lost Creek with the Lemon-squeezer, some more mini-golf, a lot of bad food, and MIB2 to sap it all off. The only sad part of the summer was Greg's departure from the Realm to attend a friend's wedding.

On a serious note fellahs, thank you for the most amazing of summers. As a first-year GL, I honestly appreciated the good behavior and fun-loving attitude which you maintained as a group for eight wonderful weeks. I see A LOT of potential in your group, fellahs. You have the makings of a great group and the most important is your close friendship. KEEP COMING BACK boys, if not for yourselves, do it for the other eleven. Your long journey which I promise will change your lives, but it is a journey which is no good unless it is done in the good company of others. Camp Robin Hood, for all the fun stuff one can do at it, would just be random assortment of discontented children were it not for the bonds of friendship which tie us all together. And that bond does not loosen as you age, it just gets tighter. I love you all, and wish you the best in whatever adventures your summers take you.

Finally, my staff... there are not words which could enable me to fully express the depths of my gratitude for the job you did for me and these boys this summer. I said it every Sunday night, because every Sunday nigh it was the truth; you were the best staff on camp, hands down! Always reliable to take initiative and make this group run like clockwork, I can honestly say that I would have been unable to give these 12 fine young men the summer they deserved without you. You guys rock, and I expect long and prosperous camp careers out of ALL of you. Nothing but love, and if there's ever a favor you need, give a shout, I owe you all one big time!

Peace to the Middle East, Davis ☺

ARCHERS

Counselors - Dick Roberts GL, Jesse Brush, David Gershenson, Hurdiss, Chris, Alex McArthur, Jon Posen

Whatcha'all doin' right now? Homework, TV, Xbox? Well, whatever it is drop it. 'Cos the summer of 02 is about to be relived. You guys came in with game faces on, ready to take the Realm by storm, and that you did. This is how it happened...

Jesse gets his driver's license to drive the red truck...

Arrival... most by bus and car - Louis by seaplane! First night - the war paint, rampaging through camp disrupting activities... A2K2... the 'bunt' signal at kickball... Maxime banned from waterfront activities on the first day... the balloon and string relays... Paul's belching... Chris' ballet at 3-legged soccer... "to the bat cave!"... Ryan puts on deodorant to go swimming.

The overnight canoe trip... yelling under the bridge... volleyball... swimming... jokes and stories... Nigro sick in the night - has to go back to camp... Harry's little accident... 'place your butts here'... the random floating life-jacket with the huge spider on it.

Jack filling his water bottle with milk... Dan the plumber... Schwartz sleeps with his eyes open... July 4th game stations- ball stuff is the best... MIB at the RH drive in... Nigro, what did you do with Stevenson's hair?... bombardment with the Yeomen... "what you smoking!"... George gets sneezed on by a horse... Nick's blind man imitation... Nigro wears shaving foam to tennis... JCAC... Zipkin remains silent through a whole meal... cheesy puffs in the mouth - Ryan starts with 10... going to the old trailer - did Wheelchair Mary and Three Fingered Willy hook up here?... Nigro and Szabo and the Icy Hot... Woody's random objects at the benches.

Our playday at West End... George's 3 run homer... Zach and Paul's great defense at soccer... lost all 3 games but played great.

Movie - MIBII... 'Got kids? Want them? Grrrrrr!'... Jack's 2 buckets of soda... Posen riding the toy pony... Schwartz blood capsules.

Woody taking a reversible to a swim meet... Nigro and Gluck's 30-28 ping pong game... skating at the Ham Arena... the mystery of the 3 hockey pucks... Jordan Z setting a record of 182 cereal packets stuffed in his clothes... putt-putt at Pirates Cove... Louis takes a Frisbee in the eye... what IS the story of Little Johnny?... 2 Jakes playing in the sprinkler outside the office... Nigro and Zack G blindfold for a meal... the tame Capture the Flag game with the Yeomen... a better one with the Bows.

Beach Day... cold water, but Woody and Zach stay in for 3.5 hours... the rain comes, the whole camp makes for the boardwalk - except us... Paul eats 3 packs of gum in 1 hour... Maxime ONLY plays 2 minutes of gameboy... Woody's split bathing suit

Medals - bronze, silver and gold... Gabe heads the medal table at 4 weeks... George can't say 'nominate'... Jack and Paul try to punt a brick... Bows and Quills swept at Bombardment... Wease Freeze... Archers love Bocce.

Playday with Birchmont... win baseball 10-0 - Gabe's no-hitter, Schwartz' grand slam... smoked in basketball... tennis 3-3... win soccer 4-0 despite Gabe and Ryan both missing penalties.

Kick the can... hiding behind counsellors... cheesy puffs record set by Schwartz at 18, broken by Paul at 21, then Alison Schwartz swings in with 30... Dick playing the obnoxious camper at the table... bus breaks down on the way back from skating...

Harry: 'Toronto is a state?'... Paul: 'chess is like Pokemon'.

The great team handball games - the hits, the plays, the tears, the curses... Szabo's awesome finger to George... Jack ran 20yds... Jake Schwartz wouldn't go out of the wake at water skiing... my mother is -... Jack: 'Does lean cuisine count?'... the costume social - Jordan Z's cool costume... Louis and Maxime beat Alex in tennis... shooting floo floo arrows at Dobry... the JCAC track meet... Chris' dizzy baseball... Paul beats cheezy puffs record with 35... Eugenio arrives (eventually)... how DO you say his name? Just call him Kovacs... the exploding whoopee cushion... strip newcomb (nearly)... Zach: "You hit my coconuts!"... Nick P: "Light a cigar!"

The half day canoe trip... the beach at the deserted camp... Jason... flips... Harry runs into a tree while putting on his shirt... Szabo falling through JP's bed... Mo the squirrel... Pepe the skunk... 'He's ma fend!'... Maxime sitting playing in the dirt... homerun derby at waterfront... the camp fire for the 4 weekers... saying goodbye to Louis, Zack G, Gabe, Szabo, Maxime and Jordan Z.

Remember when... Jack moved quickly... Zach R stopped smiling... Nigro didn't scream his number... Maxime wasn't playing Gameboy... Nick and George said something nice to each other... Zack G wasn't asking questions... Woody's area was clean... Charlie was awake at 9.15pm... Jordan G was first on the benches... George wasn't first in line for anything... Ryan and Schwartz were at the bunk at rest hour... Paul ate something without sugar in it... Gabe messed up in sports... WE DON'T!!

Remember Green and White... the break – the flying banner and the fire truck... Jake and Ryan captains, Dan and Nick co's... good close games... awesome newcomb game... spelling bee... cracker eating... mud sliding... Jake and Jack Chippendale act... White wins with the biggest blow-out ever.

Saying goodbye to the 6 weekers – Harry, Jordan G, Charlie and Nigro... and getting ready for excursion... Joker's with the Yeomen – George finishes his tokens in 10 minutes... the puppies at the pet store next door... laser tag... pizza and soda... Sol Rosenberg – "You're a filthy woman!"... Water Country with the Yeomen and Bows – Geronimo, Thunder Falls, Wave Pool... Walnut Grove Campground... the cool pool... the store... ice cream and the thunderstorm... returning to find the staff tent upside down – but dry!... eggs a la Roberts for breakfast... bowling – Nick's different methods of bowling... George has to sit up front or else he gets dehydrated... Wendy's for lunch... Funtown USA – Excalibur, Log Ride, Dragon's Descent etc... Ryan eventually conquers his fears and does the log ride... steaks and homefries for dinner... John visits with Dan's Mom... Mini golf??? – Walmart instead!... Jody the pig... Dan's stomach problem at 5am... Dunkin donuts... Dan has 2 donuts – throws up... Dan has a root beer float – throws up... mini golf and go karts... the Sky Max – but nobody dares... Eugenio throws up... Jake doesn't – "how can I throw up with people watching!"... movie – Austin Powers 3... the outlet stores... water guns... finally Pizza Barn and back to camp. We had a blast, guys, thanks!

Late reveille... sign ups for activities... all camp bombardment... Cozy Corner ice cream... the little kid who was there... code words 'fish' and 'weather'... Nick makes a cigar in woodshop... capture the flag rematch with the Yeomen – we still lost... midnight McDonalds... relay games – cracker eat, root beer chug, sand hill, string etc etc... Team handball and the injuries to Jake and Ryan... water guns... the Saxon speeches... Jack: 'He can't do that!'... group bocce... 'What you need is a good shoe to the --!'...

Congratulations to the award winners: MC – Dan C-K, HM – Gabe. Fellowship – Jack and Zach R, HM Szabo. Sportsmanship – Gabe, HM – Jordan Z. Service – Dan C-K, HM – Jordan Z. Inspection – Nigro and Zach R. MI – Louis.

Gentlemen – give it up for a great staff! Jesse and JP, thanks for taking care of the group in my absence, and being there for the kids; you guys will make great Group Leaders one day. Alex, Chris and David, when you weren't at your activities you were willing and enthusiastic – I couldn't have asked for more!

These are just some of the memories of a sensational summer. Sure, I may have missed some, but sometimes the unrecorded memories are the most special, and all of you will have some. Now go pick up the phone, call someone and talk about them.

I have had a fantastic 20th year – and that is down to you guys. You played hard, you laughed hard, you learned how to live with each other and show each other a great time. You made me proud. Thank you so much. I can't wait to see you all as Yeomen next summer.

Looking good Archers!...

Love y'all, Dick ☺

YEOMEN

Campers - Harrison Brown, Sam Dicker, Adam Fooks, Daniel Forrester, Michael Fribourg, Jack Friedman, Alexander Gesswein, Roger Gesswein, Matthew Gleysteen, Sam Jonas, Alexander Lynn, Shakeel Pereira, Benjamin Roberts, Matthew Rosen, Joshua Rowe, Christopher Sartori, Ryan Shane, Ethan Sneider, David Solomon, John Solomon, Myles Stavis, Andrew Wynne

Counselors - Josh Morgan GL, David Margolius, Lee Edwards, Andy Knapp, Jon Meltzer, Mike Stecher, Richard Stoat, Simon Theobalds

Yeomen, Yeomen, on the Bizzies!!! Well my boys, by the time you read this it has got to be late spring and you are probably all getting geared up for the Summer of 2003. But right now, just for a moment, let's take a brief look back on that Yeomen summer of 2002. Twenty-two Yeomen, eight staff dropping more bombs than can fit onto two pages. V. Harry, Dicker, Peaches, Mikey, Jack, Danny, Alex, Roger, Gleysteen, Jonas, Yoda, Shak, Roberts, Matty, S-Rowe, Sartori, Shane, E-Sneids, D. Solomon, J. Solomon, Myles, and of course Wynne. Remember Opening Day: three buses all rolling into camp at exactly the same time. Where are David Solomon's bags? And for that matter where's Peaches?... and ultimate frisbee that first night. Ryan Shane: "He looks like a drama guy"... Roberts' extreme tubing wipeout- oh he was totally inverted... Remember our evening activity of getting Teddy's Aerobie down from the tree: Rick pulls it off with a lacrosse stick and a softball.

Peaches finally shows up during SPUD... Remember Yeolandic football, and football again. Jack takes one in the face. Andrew Wynne asking me to stop with the tennis ball at 7:32 a.m. because "Jonas is still trying to sleep." Remember David Solomon jamming out to "Underground" every morning w/ a full air-band... John Solomon and his tennis balls... Myles with his Stoner-eyes... Jack and the $10 he spent, sorry Jack... Myles has it. Josh Rowe flipping backwards over the benches... a little bit too much entertainment... Andrew Wynne wearing the same shirt for about nine straight days, hey that's a full cycle of laundry... Mikey Fribourg asking questions about pictures... Ethan Sneider is Glick! Matt Gleysteen's belated birthday, thanks, Jimmy Basley. Finally being able to tell the Gessweins apart (besides by their shoes)... Ben Roberts e-mailing the group... The Gesswein packing tape and mammoth shipments of water... "When are we going to a movie with the Quills?!" Don't forget trying to drown Simon... Showers in the lake, and the Lancer Palace. Remember ice skating, twice... Chuck as the garbage man... Matt's baby voice... Harry Brown playing Castleva-nia... Mikey's got inspection locked up... Danny's bug zapper... Shmorgan shocking Meltzer w/ Danny's bug zapper, hehe... Remember Yoda's wooden bat... Remember golf with Morgan and Davis... Becoming awesome at Volleyball. Remember the Founder's Day gift... Thanks, Archer staff... Stoner doing meal jobs... Sartori's personal excursion to

NASCAR... Jamming in Margo's bunk... Margo finally being able to be GL again... Shmorgan's mom comes to camp, no 'your mom' jokes today... Remember Myles with the Quills, "Why do you have to be so flirtatious?!" This was the first of many confrontations between Myles and the Quills. Remember skipping intensive... and then getting caught red-handed. Remember the Sanford Mainer's game... Versus the Concord Prarie Dogs... Accosting Bruce the Moose, Jack punching Bruce... "Orange-motor-thing"... Yoda, Alex G., and Matt G. doing Dizzy Wizzy... Yoda topples first... Starting the wave... The goofy announcer... Josh Rowe's little accident to the head... Yoda's ping-pong table, and his altercation with Ron... Alex wears the blue shoes... Remember the Group Leader Discretionary Expulsion Policy, better known as the GLDEP... Shmorgan takes the clipboard on his day off... The world's largest pinball machine... Our long drive up to North Conway... Dinner and a movie with the Quills. Remember Awards Night, Congratulations: Danny and Jonas - MC; Boberts - Fellowship;

Jonas - Sportsmanship; Ethan - Service; Myles - Progress and Determination; and of course Matt Rosen - Inspection. I wish you all could have gotten awards, because you are all very deserving. I just want to thank you all so much for an incredible summer. Simon, Rich, Andy, and Lee, thank you so much for giving it your all this summer. You guys were always an invaluable asset to me. Meltzer and Stecher, you two came a long way this summer. Thanks for always being there. Margo, I think you probably grew most of all. You were an awesome AGL, and I can't thank you enough. To my Saxons; Duncan, Trucker, Dobry, and occasionally Stone, you guys were my secret weapons this summer and you know it. You were once my campers, but became my peers and inspirations. I am incredibly proud of you guys, and deeply indebted to you for always having my back. For my boys, I think about you everyday. Come back to camp forever; I promise it gets better every year. ☺

LANCERS

Campers - Zandy Bard, Andrew Berman, Joshua Berman, Jaime Blaustein, Jacob Cohen, John Emery, Zach Frumkin, Jesse Greenstein, Max Greenstein, Daniel Grossman, Esteban Hernandez, Jonathan Katz, Chris Kushma, Taylor Lesser, Marco Margaritoff, Teddy Newmyer, Chris Purvis, Harry Raymond, Stephen Solomon, Justin Tansey, Adrien Trompier

Counselors - Rick Lowe GL, Ethan Rothstein, Mike Aquino, Travis Boulton, James Brenner, Grant Rahmyer

Lancers of 2002. What a group! I knew from having the PJ Squires of '98 and '99, this was a great group. Coming into camp this summer, I knew which group I wanted (and no, the new bunk had nothing to do with it).

Remember opening day? Arriving at camp, many of you had heard rumors of a new Lancer bunk, but none of you had seen it. Once we moved in, we were the envy of camp. The bunk came fully loaded with 7 working showers, hot water, water pressure, balconies and great lighting. Amazing!

We started out the summer with 15 kids. A lot of old friends and a couple of new ones. There was plenty of room in our 3 floor palace. Welcome Zandy, Berman A, Berman J, Jaime, Moose, Frumpkin, Jesse, Max, Grossman, Stefan, Katz, Purvis, Harry, Tansey and Adrien.

Remember the first evening activity? Softball at the Grandstand was interrupted by the Archers running across trying to steal the bases. Remember having tennis the first day and seeing Purvis's Bling-Bling racquet for the first time? Everyone wanted to use that. Remember trying to get Teddy's Frisbee out of the tree for evening activity? I remember taking my first day off and coming back to see Frumpy and Stefan with bleached blonde hair... and Tansey's was GREEN! I thought you were going to see Mr. Deeds...

Remember Stefan trying to catch a fly ball at softball, but taking it in the mouth and having to go to the infirmary? Remember the start of Yeolandic (Yeoman-Lancer-Days-of-Intense-Competition). It started out with two games of very intense football. There was Adrien's game-winning TD reception. Remember all the crazy games at the Grandstand on July 4th?

Remember Zandy's 18 points in the 15 and under West End game? How about Frumpkin's 15 K performance in 12 and under baseball? Remember all the cheers of "David" in the dining hall. You guys managed to get banned from sailing daily. How about good old Jimmy Baisly??? What a guy! The kid could shoot archery, play soccer, beat Zandy at basketball and do anything else he wanted. Remember his birthday in the dining hall? He didn't even eat a slice of his own cake! Seriously, Jimmy, you're the man!

Remember the lady driving our bus to Ogunquit? She loved our singing! Remember going to Winaukee to play lacrosse against actual lacrosse players! After the first hit on Frumpy, you realized what you were allowed to do and held your own.

Remember the pop social? How about Spud on the quad and junior camp fields? Who wants the Paddy Wagon? Remember Golf and Gocce. Purvis and the Bermans nearly gave me a little competition. There was lax bocce... we can play Bocce with just about anything! Remember the shocker? Then there was the arrival at various times of Emery, Kushma, Taylor, Marco, Teddy and Stevie. The group was complete at 21, after Lon "the Rabbi" Levy got stuck at Band Camp.

Remember the challenges against the Arrows, Yeomen and PJ Squires? Winning double canteen. Taylor hits the first tree shot of the group! After parents weekend, we said goodbye to Tansey, Harry, Stefan, Adrien and Purvis. The remaining 16 waited for Green and White to break. They didn't have to wait long.

Remember the plane circling overhead with the "Green and White 2002" banner, followed by the fire truck full of judges stopping on the quad. After dinner it was back to the bunk to pick Captains and Co's. Congratulations to Katz and Blaustein, the returning captains, and to Zandy and Teddy the co-captains. Remember the Ultimate Frisbee game ending a bit early? How about the thrilling end to the softball game? The White Warriors defeated the Green Grizzlies by 755 points, but it's Green and White so it was fun anyway! After the war we said goodbye to Andy, Josh, Zandy.

Frumpy, Moose, Jesse and Max. That meant 9 for excursion. Excursion started out with 9 kids and 2 staff on a full-sized bus, with Tom, the best bus driver ever! First stop was Aquaboggen. Remember us scaring the little girls who had golf balls? Remember Stevie trying to find golf balls in the pond? Remember the Go-Karts? Missing the sign for the last lap through the pit lane and everyone getting thrown out. Remember Marco and Emery capsizing and nearly sinking the paddle boat? Remember scalping all the tokens off the shady kids? Remember the picture with the hot lifeguard and Stevie's wonderful head-positioning? Remember seeing Goldmember and winning the Dinosaur?

Remember the Midnight trip to L.L. Bean and Ben and Jerry's? Remember the Ducks/Frogs making noise all night? Remember shopping in Freeport and singing the Frumpkin Waterfront song through the streets? Remember meeting Chuck and Uncle Bob to go deep sea fishing on the BINGO. Wait, where's Tom? Remember Katz winning the pool for catching the first fish? Jaime catching the most with 18. Then there was the race to see who could bite the head off of the fish first. It came down to Teddy versus Marco and Teddy just barely won. Remember Emery trying to bite the head off, but getting nothing but eyeball? Remember the Lobster at Kaler's?

Remember throwing the kids out of the playpen at BK? Remember going on the Red Hook brewery tour and meeting our good friend Clay. He thought he was some kind of expert! It's ok, his girlfriend made up for it. Remember going to the Nike outlet, then having Pizza and meeting Corbin to see XXX.

After excursion, there were just 4 days of camp left. 4 days filled with volleyball and sailing. Congratulations to the award winners: Daniel Grossman repeating inspection for the fourth year in a row. Most Improved went to Moose. Purvis was the Sportsmanship winner. Katz and Blaustein splitting both Service AND Fellowship. And finally, the Berman twins, Andy and Josh, split Master Camper. Congrats to all of you guys. This is a great group and there are only a few awards, there could have been 10 M.C.'s.

Finally, a big thanks to the staff. Aquino and Travis, I know waterski takes up a lot of time, but thanks for trying. Cox, you were incredible whilst you were here, we missed you Grant, thank you, I knew I could always rely on you whenever I needed anything, you were great. Brenner, we'll call this summer a work in progress. We know you have the love for camp and it shows. Ethan, we had a big workload, but you handled it fine and did an awesome job. I can't thank you enough.

Lancers, keep in touch, I love you guys, see you in 2003. ☺

FRIARS

Counselors - Brandon Barnett GL, Jason Fisher, Andy McNeill, Eric Martz, Shawn Mayor, Damien Speranza, Mike Stringer, Daniel Brooker

Bad boys, Bad boys, Whatcha gonna do, Whatcha gonna do when we come for you. It's that time of the year again, so put down your school books (Walter & Solomon), put down your Maxim's, and put down your CD players-they're probably not yours anyway- and let's go back to the summer of 2002 when 23 Friars stormed the Realm.

R e m e m b e r Abadaba, Big Walt, Pimpsmack, Frotch, AC, Princess, Durden, Fingers, New Roe, Howie, JB, Krummy, E.D., TWIMT, Goofy, Bra Bra, H Potter, Gabwej, Offsides, Sexy Kitten, Frankilicious, and TA...

Remember our first night together, playing Ultimate on the soccer field, introducing ourselves in the bunk, How many years you have been at camp; Joey's response-Bocce and Baseball!

Remember the first four weeks... Not Really! Here's what we do remember... Abadian's family coming every other day, Fisher introducing himself to his cousin, Walter's golf attire, breaking his toe, Remember Dougie listening to Dave Chapelle on repeat every night, Word Association, Frotch opening an electronic store, always taking a break at activities. Remember A.C. winning everyone's money, only to hide it in Double's area, his free-throw shooting exhibitions, Gaynor's princess tent over his bed, strange obsession over having a window in the back room. Remember Tyler's show at the adirondacks, always being last to activities even after getting a head start, Billy's uncanny ability to always be first on the benches, being told to do something multiple times. Remember Harter's tough guy attitude, his school yearbook and the girl Double's in love with, Howard's stretched out twin in the group, playing with junior campers every morning at flag raising. Remember Klein's ability to sleep through anything, his obsession with 14-3 in volleyball, Krummy's twin sister nobody knew he had, and his twin at ice skating. Remember Manin's personal accountant: Jason Fisher, yelling random things in his sleep, Nigro apologizing for something all summer. Remember Senter telling everyone he was chill at the beginning of the summer, his goofy goggles, Brad's royal rumble, bringing a Brita to camp. Remember Solomon's willingness to participate in every activity, difficulties about his bed his first day, Stein's weird dance at wiffleball, always playing with Howard. Remember when we couldn't think of a good remember when about Szabo, Uth still out of control when being tickled, always wanting to go to ceramics. Remember Frank's pictures from home, his quick departure on visiting day, Finally, Remember Jorge's ability to fit right in and his father's candy store in Mexico.

Remember when we said Abadian's name right, when Walt wasn't at the infirmary, when Dougie wasn't in his sleeping bag at morning benches, when Frotch wasn't telling someone to stop being Jewish, when A.C. wasn't looking for a card game, when Gaynor was always fully clothed, when Tyler wasn't talking about Haimo, when Billy wasn't wearing the same hat, when Harter wasn't yelling about something, when Howard wasn't asking to go to Riflery, when Klein wasn't missing something, when Krummy wasn't calling home, when Manin wasn't trying to be funny, when Nigro used the indoor bathrooms, when everything out of Senter's mouth wasn't a question, when Brad could think of something good to put on his Friar jersey, when Solomon wasn't wearing a Bar/Bar Mitzvah shirt, when we weren't talking about Stein's mom, when Szabo wasn't hitting trees in softball, when Uth wasn't helping out at crafts, when Jorge wasn't with his brother... WE DON'T!!!!!!!!!!!!

Remember... "I'm wet and I'm loving it!"... "New Roe" ... "The Chinese are coming" ... "NINE!!!" ... "I'm Slow" ... "High Five"... "Crack A—Cracker"... Klein's T-shirts: Eat Mo Chicken, I Bent My Wookie, Rise Ye Mighty People, Remember unleashing the Dolphin, not having water for the first two weeks. Remember the Talent Show, Senter on sax as always, Bohemian Rhapsody sung by the five fine ladies: Uth, Abad, Howard, Joey, and the finest of them all Big Walt. Remember Beach Day, on the bus with the kitchen staff, Dougie yelling at them, playing NBA trivia, Gaynor having trouble reading, nobody wanting to carry anything to the beach, Nigro, Gaynor and Krummy joining Double for neck duty, losing all feeling below our waist, playing catch with the shirt. Remember delinquent count-off's, not being able to go to the boardwalk, Fish fitting in with his false teeth, most of the group having dinner together, rain, everyone to the boardwalk even the trouble makers, the bus ride home, passing around Max's magazine, confiscating lighters, having water in the bunk when we got back. Remember Ice Skating, Tyler and Gaynor sitting on the ice without their pants on, eating as much as possible, Dougie being the first one on the ice and the last to leave, the Delinquent crew not being able to go the second time, watching Raw in the den, the rest of the group squeezing into the bus.

Remember when Double was on a day off or gone for his Brother's wedding, something always going wrong, Fish running a stellar group, Konrad helping out... not really, whose line is it anyway, Fight Club, Pump up before football, Toga party with the Bards.

Remember Visiting Day, everyone being on their best behavior... almost. Dougie nearly killing someone with a Frisbee, Senter bailing on the group for two days, the Big Show, hiding CD players in unimaginable places, sleeping during the show, staying up late with littlest Nigro, watching him take after his brother, saying goodbye to those leaving after four.

Remember Green and White, the break during pesapallo, the spray painters in the bunk cleaning the walls, picking teams, congratulations to Senter and Manin and Uth and Szabo. Remember how close the group activities were. Talent Night; Nigro as Hanz, Krummy the basketball star, Frotch the musician, Klein in half the white team's acts, Senter's sax solo, "Big Awkward Weiner." Regardless of how lopsided the group was and the war in general, you all made me proud of your passion and heart. Congratulations to the White Warriors, winning by 755 points, the largest margin ever. What if Uth picked the white bean?

Remember lazy day - everyday was lazy day for us - when are we burying the axes? Getting soaked by the Bards, revenge is so sweet! Founder's night, our Letters by Lunch mailbox. Free sign-up days, no one remembering what they signed up for, noone going to what they signed up for anyway.

Remember excursion... Day 1... everyone wanting to ride in Damien's car, no one allowed to, waiting for Billy, driving on the wrong side of the road, pickup truck from Georgia with bullet-holes in the back, Senter's Market, Welcome to Moultonboro, population 10... five seconds later... now leaving Moultonboro, antique shops every five minutes, Billy's senior girlfriend, Dartmouth... trying to find a parking spot, Learning to Learn, frat dogs, trying to pick up college girls, turns out they're only 15, Robin the hippie-guitar man, Frotch trying to hook up Krummy, buying the Animal House poster, never finding Sam Stein... off to the camp site, Cleveland Rocks, Uth going crazy over the snowboard shop, the Murder Mystery cruise, what a great show. Frotch starring in the show as Greg Garious, REBUS! REBUS!, Billy's five hours in the bathroom, prank calls on the balcony, annoying the waiters... and everyone else on the boat, Dougie harassing Andrea, yelling at speedboat next to us, Senter asking everyone where Trey lives, blowing up Damien and Fish's spot in Burlington, Daddy Daddy, is this our new mommy?!, hanging out with Angela and Meredith, Dougie doing his dance for a kiss, Senter going crazy outside the concert, "this is an undesirable place with undesirable people," Damien coming through for Klein, Billy hitting his head on car door, bus rides and And 1 Mix Tapes.

Day 2... asking for directions to Alpine Sliding at the campsite, woman new to the area not knowing where it is, turning left and driving for 10 minutes... still no alpine slide, asking for directions, turning around and driving back

10 minutes, 10 seconds past campsite on the right: Stowe Mountain Alpine Slide. Dougie still wearing the Wichigan jersey, no one getting hurt, $10 potato chips, waiting for Manin who just had to go one more time, off to Ben & Jerry's, but first, free cheese! Billy and Double eating whole bowl of chips and dip, buying non-alcoholic champagne, Ben & Jerry's factory tour, everyone getting ice cream but Stein, Senter and Billy winning prizes... Back to Burlington... the happy hippie star, nuggets anyone?, Gaynor, Senter, Klein, Manin, and Uth's happy experience at the happy store - two grooms, the caterpillar, Douglas's smart purchases, national smile day, off to the movies without Angela, everyone sees Austin Powers except Doug, Gaynor misses the end of his movie but gave everyone quite a finale, bus rides and Swingers.

Day 3... Waiting for Fish at the campsite, breakfast at bagel shop, off to Killington... water slides and skate park, Fisher loosing his suit on slide, Uth, Frotch and Krummy showing their skills on skate ramps, Dougie showing his ability to fall, Gondola ride, chill spot, off to Pico... more alpine slides, Manin falling, the bungee thing, Solomon hitting his head, Damien touching the top, Dougie could've jumped all day, to the camp site... Dougie and

Howard setting up the tents, almost killing Solomon on the see-saw, fast food dinner, burying a Frisbee and returning it 10 minutes later, cop catching Billy watering the plants, Burger King drive thru, getting lost on the way back, missing the exit, truth or dare at the campsite, Gaynor tripping over a stump, sleeping under the stars, bus rides, medication and double feature.

Day 4... Joey's ice cold shower followed by Fish's burning hot one, waking up early even though we chose to sleep in, swimming in the gorge, breakfast at Dunkin Donuts, off to North Conway... shopping at OVP, Double losing 75 cents over Sprite at OVP, Dougie buying hair picks, Senter and Billy chilling in the massage shop, Jorge Woods as dressed by Gaynor, Gaynor helping Double shop at Polo, his unsymmetrical jacket, finally getting our Friar jerseys, dinner at Applebee's... Krummy's abundance of food, Klein asking for European soda, Billy ordering ribs and deciding to wash his hands halfway through only to get them messy again, how did Stein get barbecue sauce on his forearm?, going to see Signs, the van ride home... Manin's soda story and Double's reaction to the Britney Spears tour, coming back to camp and ruining the all-camp movie. Friar excursion of 2002 finally comes to an end after four amazing days. The 13 of you were extremely well behaved, Thank you for a great trip!

Remember the last few days...

unveiling the Friar jerseys, finishing our founders day gift, campfire, Fish Ball, the Big Show, Tobasco chugging, Our final game of Softball, And 1 Mixtape Volume 6-featuring Gaynor as Future, Dougie as Headache and Manin as Hot-sauce A.K.A Soy Sauce, signature moves, remember packing... guess who's last-Billy!!!, writing our names in the bunk only later to sand and paint over them, Awards Night... Congratulations to those of you who won awards. For those of you who didn't, I never won anything as a camper and I think I turned out pretty good. Well...

I couldn't have made it through the summer alone. I'd like to take a moment to thank my staff. Shawn and Andy, the two of you were a pleasure to work along side. Whenever you were not at your specialty you were looking to spend time with the kids, Andy especially. I thank you for everything and hope to see both of you return to camp next summer. Stringer, four years in a row! I do not know what you see in these kids! Just Kidding. You were always there to help out, especially when I would oversleep. Thank you for being someone I could always count on. Damien, what can I say. I think you're terrific. Excursion was a blast and I am glad I could convince you to come along. Aldo and Martz, it's not easy being a first-year aide, especially with this age group. Martz, I feel you handled the challenge as well as anyone could have. Aldo, you were a pleasure to have around once you finally got out of bed!!!

Finally Fish, you already know how I feel about you. This summer you proved you are ready for your own group. I hope you get the chance to run one. Good luck at school we will be in touch.

Boys, what a strange trip it's been! The Friars of 2002 showed the Realm that it's not impossible to change overnight... at least some of you. Despite this difficult summer, you guys have a lot of potential. There were certain glimpses of greatness throughout the summer, especially on excursion. Being in charge of this group, I must say, was difficult. Being friends and having fun with you guys was easy! I would love it if all of you come back next summer and prove to the entire camp what a great group you can be. Who knows, maybe I'll be here to witness it. Camp and the people here are too special to throw it away. The time to turn it around is now. I love each and every one of you and only want the best for you. I am here if any of you need anything. Thanks for everything and stay out of trouble... Please!!!!!! ☺

Counselors - Andy Pascal GL, Aaron Samet, Jon Duprey-Kasmire, Aaron Cooper, Dustin Mack

To the Foresters of 2002: Let's be honest, it was not always easy to get you guys to pay attention, but right now I need you all to stop what your doing and pay attention. So put down your 12" Subway and turn down Minor Threat, because it's time to remember the amazing times of last summer. Ready? Okay, then!

Remember... Brody the R.A., N. C-K, Crane, Forte, "That Guy" Billy, Frif, JG, Jen Belin, Yoni, A. Margo, K. Margo, Squeak, Rikleen, Pubert, Hippie, Simon, Phil, and Sez.

Remember... Softball the first night-Jelin hits trees twice-A. Margo robs Pascal with a great catch... Thank you, Jakey... Kick the can-Samet's disguise... Simon's Ryker Island knowledge... Simon stung by a wasp in the butt... Capture the Flag vs. Friars with Bards and Shires-victorious... BASE-ketball League... "Take it easy" (Scarface's voice or The Dude's voice)... Trip to the Outpost for Jake, Yoni, JG, and Jelin-joke's on you guys... JG gets his towel pulled in front of the kitchen staff... Foresters hating Intensive Week... "C'mon Craig"... No game ends until Simon scores... Brody dropping 35 points at West End... Yoni hits a 3 at the House-"Who's three-feet tall now?"... Rikleen being the worst freezer ever at meals... "Simon, NO!!!"... Pascal breaking out the 9-iron-Drill Sergeant... Water Balloon Neukomb for evening activity-Simon has Vietnam flashbacks...

The Pooper Troopers-Brody, Crane, Simon, K. Margo, JG, and Billy-Five brave souls take care of business... Forester Softball League-Treebombs vs. Samet's Stone Throwers... "SCOPA!"... "Pappy"... Beach Day-Lobsters at Blue Water... Rikleen ducking spiders in the bathroom... "When are we gonna watch 'Scarface?'"... Private Pile quotes... Crane-"I don't lose"-Bombardment vs. Saxons.

Remember... Talent Show-Simon and Nick's Duet... Citrus Chip chants and signs from Cozy Corner... Billy's ongoing commentary about everything going on around him... Samet doing pirouettes at ice skating... Craig never getting up in the morning... Specialty staff always sleeping... K. Margo and John sprinkle seeds at 2am... Beating West End 7-6 at Sunday baseball game... Sez bowling over the Friars during Capture the Flag... Fast Pitch Softball Tourney at Kenwood-arriving 2 hours late, playing one game and going home... Craig catching a line drive that nearly breaks his hand... An hour with the Shires every night... "Rooster or Bear?"... Rubin always saying "That's hot"... Sanford Mainers game-a few get dizzy between innings and the Flick Cup game... Craig's dad harassing Yoni on Visiting Day-264... "What'd I do?" and "What is this?"... chanting everything... Brody giving Rubin a haircut... The Big Show-Kevin and Nick steal the show...

Remember... Green and White... Pascal and Alicia lead the Green Grizzlies vs. Brandon and Beetle's White Warriors... Jelin and

A. Margo as group captains, Yoni and Phil as co's... hottest color war ever... 775-Pascal becomes Hammerin' Hank Aaron... Grizzlies never giving up... Unbelievable group softball game... Pascal and Alicia's beds make their way to the Far Far Field.

Remember... Excursion... Day 1... jet boating with the Shires-Reitman and Squeak headbutt... PB&J's with mustard-"are you kidding me?"... BBQ at Reitman's home-"Now this is a barbeque!"... La Ronde with Shires-Jelin fails to live up to his brother... Day 2... "Austin Powers in Goldmember"-mixed reviews... Jeff T. Darnell leads the sightseeing around Montreal... The Canuck 5 and Captain Pascal... Forte trying to use travelers checks... There's nothing to eat around here"-Squeak's absurd comment... Coop and Pascal chat with Joe "McKenna" in the hotel room... everything good on TV is in French... Hard Rock Café for dinner-discount pint glasses... Pascal swipes a card... the flood in room 1205... Day 3... a lot of driving... the egg water at the Pizza place... seeing Dr. Brush... watching "A Beautiful Mind" and "The Score" in the Red House-"Billy!"... Day 4... Rafting on the Kennebec... Phil falls out when the raft wasn't even moving... Sez's absurd comments-"This water is really wet" and "There are rocks in the Rock Garden?"... JG goes for a long swim... "Jake, this is the only buzz you'll get all summer"... Forte spilling Comet in the van.

I want to take this time to thank our staff, for surely this summer would not have run as smoothly as it did if it weren't for them. Dustin and John, thank you for being with the group when you could, I always appreciated the extra help. Cooper, for the second year in a row, you have been nothing short of amazing. The kids love and respect you, and I thank you for all you have done. I am proud to call you my good friend. Samet, like Coop, you have been so solid these past two years. But this year especially, you have been incredible. You did everything that needed to get done and got it done well. You were a pleasure to work with, and I truly could not have asked for a better AGL. Boys, this summer was the greatest summer of my ten years at RobinHood, plain and simple. I certainly had my share of personal achievements, but the greatest reward I received was the pleasure of watching you guys become the great group that you are now. Having been your counselor three times, I have watched you grow up and although there have been bumps along the way, nothing has made me prouder than watching you go from individual boys to a group of fine young men. Thankyou for making this past summer so special. I love you all and know that I will always be there for each and every one of you if you should ever need me. - Pappy ☺

SAXONS

Campers - Andrew Arnot, Jason Dobry, Eli Fuchsberg, JC Gough, Scott Heller, Ethan Lieberman, Duncan Mendelsohn, David Morgenstern, Stevenson Porter-Bell, Peter Rodriguez, Craig Rudikoff, Scott Schwartz, Adam Stone, Kevin Yaghoubi

Counselors - Josh Bailey GL, Konrad Weatherhogg, Shawn Salamon

Alright fellas, it's that time of year again. Grab a seat and let's take a look back at one of the greatest summers ever on record. At the beginning of the summer, I took you down to the waterfront and told you that I would do anything I could to make this the best summer of your lives. I told you that if you work for me, I'll work for you. Well, you guys worked hard for me (most of the time) and I worked as hard as I ever have in order to make this summer one you will never forget. I know that it has been that way for me, and I thank you all for that.

As I looked down the list of the Saxons of 2002, I remember thinking that I had never seen a group with such potential to be great leaders in camp. You all knew the ins and outs of camp, having all been there at least 4 years, most longer than that. There were tremendous expectations for you guys as a group and you fulfilled them all from day one. Speaking of day one...

The bunks were separated based mostly on musical preference aside from the staff. Beetle on the rap (and Stoner) side and Shawn and Konrad on the chill side... our wide variety of activities... ultimate on the first night, softball twice early, then volleyball almost every day the rest of the way with O.A.R... AAAAAHH-ACE... swimming 16 and having dock fights-Beetle and Ethan drench towels and throw in sand... Mikey Brockmann and his song and wiping cheesy poofs all over his face... Dobry, Ethan, Scotty, and Eli get cheesy poofs in everything... Arnot falls without getting the racquet... Freaky c-blocks Trucker on duty... Beetle's fan... Arnot shaves and then wipes his face with alcohol laden pad... DUMBEST GROUP IN CAMP... Eli falling asleep at dinner.

Remember helping out at activities and with groups... most of you with the Archers... Scott, Eli, and Ethan helping out at soccer—at Huckins... our play day at Tecumseh... Trucker's magnificent pitching and fielding skills... turning a double play... almost pulling out a win in soccer... Beetle getting "shhhhd" by the ref... losing a close one in b-ball without P.J... Adding ultimate to the agenda... counselors allowed to play... this is our game... we've got hippies... Scotty shining in athletics... "IT'S A JOCKOCRACY"... lunch with the skinheads... chants and songs, then immediate silence... Scotty—"try to escape, I'll meet you back in Poland."

Remember our scavenger hunt... Arnot actually takes the license plates off of Beetle's, Shawn's, and Konrad's cars... Eli in the garbage bag hiding from the bugs... Stevenson and P.J. cut their hair... Mount Washington... really cold... Stone—"look for what you can't see, that's where we're going"... Ethan swimming at Hermit pond... Freaky is Trucker's funky mountain man... leaning into the wind... bootie dog... Dobry making it to the top, then hitch-hiking down... Dave Chappelle on the way back... remember going to Conway... Beetle gets a lecture about being a role model from an authority figure... Duncan punched Stone in the face... Dobry's yarmulke... COUNT IT

Remember how Eli called everyone by their first name... Trucker's dream: who needs a left leg?... Figgy came to visit... he and Beetle come back as skunks... counting stars and giving Duncan a piggyback ride around the flag pole... "Why does it always have to be about color?"... Trucker stripping on the way to see Mr. Deeds... Picture Nazi: you want picture? You come back, one year!... DOUBLE D SQUAD... Heller's fish call... Beach Day... Trucker gets hit on: "how's your day?"... Shawn also gets hit on "come here often?"... Brockmann and Konrad walking down the beach... the friendly waiter... Ethan—"can we bring camp blankets?"... "Steak: lobster of the land."... "How do elephants eat peanuts through their noses?"... Trucker—"do lobsters go on dates?"... "Eric, come to your daddies."... Eli gets grilled cheese at the Blue Water Inn... awesome weather... Margaritaville arrives

Remember Trucker's and Duncan's diets... "That's a JV breakfast"... Piggy... He's got the body and the personality, but the face just isn't there... Stevenson's crystal... Dobry's supernut... Kevin's picture of his car missing... motor oil air freshener... Stone left to get his license comes back driving a better car than anyone in camp... Lil trucker comes out to water-ski... was P.J. ever not sleeping?... Dobry's midnight hamburger... Arnot—"I'm supposed to be 16, but I'm not there yet."

Remember Green and White... Craig, Duncan, and Beetle Captains... Green takes volleyball and softball... that's about it... Heller in the Spelling Bee... Ethan's "Big Awkward Weiner" comment = best line ever... Green Hospital Squad... 755 point victory for the White Warriors = largest margin ever... Beetle's bed at the lake on lazy day... Shawn and Rudy win the homerun contest with a good showing from Stevenson and Corbin... Saxons visit the Friars... Remember Excursion... Shady paintball place... Aryan magazine-selling cult... blizzic dancing - Heller doing it... code names: bravo leader, dyna, goon-luke, shadyman... Shawn's car getting backed into... Arnot getting run over on the way to the science museum... IMAX outback... Quincy Market... the Aquarium... Dick's Last Resort and Stevenson serving... Chillin' at Stone's house... swimming, watching movies, playing pool, etc... catching a movie back in Conway and then a late run to Subway... finally back to camp to relax... enjoying the last week as campers.

On awards night, you guys cleaned up. As a group you won a bunch of BIC's and MIP's and then swept the big awards and I congratulate all of you that won anything. This proved what John said when he mentioned that camp was led by one of the best groups to ever come through the Realm. Even without the awards, you guys stepped up and worked hard this summer and lived up to all of the high expectations that everyone had for you, and I'm very proud of each and every one of you. I have no doubt that you will all make fantastic counselors in the years to come, and I can safely say that you are ready for the next step. While I like to think that I had some influence on you guys this summer, I couldn't have done my job without the other two staff members that we had. Konrad, you were my bunkmate my first year on staff and have watched me grow as a counselor. While you were one of the busiest men in camp, you were always there for me and the group when we needed you. Your experience proved to be invaluable, and I can't thank you enough for everything. Shawn, from the moment we met, we clicked. For some reason we had an instant chemistry that allowed us to have fun and in turn give the kids a great summer. You were the epitome of a specialty counselor in that you were always helping out with the group when not at baseball. Sometimes it seemed as though I had another general staff member and for all the help you gave when I didn't have the energy, I thank you so much. You gave the group some "new blood" being the only first year Hooder and it added another aspect to the group. Finally, I would like to thank the Saxons of 2002 as a whole for giving me one of my best summers ever. I wonder if it will ever be topped. It has been a pleasure to watch you guys grow as campers and as men and while I am 6 years your senior, I consider you all to be good friends of mine. Nobody knows what the future holds for sure, but I am fairly certain that the camp is going to be in good hands for quite a while with you guys as staff. The only way I will be able to have a better summer than this will be if I can come back and be a colleague to you guys. If that doesn't happen, I'll definitely be back for 5 days each summer to see how you're doing. Thanks again, and I love you all. - Beetle Jesters Tumblers Count off... one two skip a few twenty-three TA... GOR-GEOUUUS!! Alright girls, now that you're back into the mood of the outdoor theater and singing in the dining hall lets everyone take a break from your homework, brothers, sisters, Mom, Dad and everything else at home to relive the amazing summer of 2002!

Remember... The first day of camp, everyone a little nervous... our first evening activity... .BLOB TAG. Everyone settling in, maybe a little too much with the boys... is he your dude?!! Who had more dudes Valerie or Big Mac? Our first 'soccer' game at Robindel... Heather's amazing soccer skills were revealed, we also learned that we weren't the only camp who knew "Hey Robin Hood how do you feel? We feel good"... Then there was our playday against Forest Acres... kickball, then newcomb (thanks to our refs Adam and Duncan) and finally the soccer or tennis games... you girls did amazing, beating them in all sports!!

Remember... Climbing our first mountain, Mt. Williard. Drew and Heather led us all the way up the Mountain... Alison and Heather brought up the rear, while Katie Davis' misting water bottle kept us refreshed. Then the following day our wonderful canoe and camping trip. Katie Davis, Natalia, Sarah and Mendel went swimming in our clothes and we all jumped off the dock together. Then there was our second mountain... Green Mountain... Alison Schwartz, Most Improved Hiker! The nice candy man was at the top of the mountain giving away gum drops, as was Lily and Bailey's Aunt and Uncle.

Remember... Our many evening activities. Counselor makeovers, where we made Jenn and Christina look so beautiful... just kidding! And of course when Mendel ran around camp with a thong and bra on over her clothes. Swimming at the outdoor theater with our eight weekers... Natalia's amazing luck finding her money at the bottom of the lake. There also were paper bag skits that ended with Maddie falling off the bench.

Remember... When Jenn and Natalia went crazy because they figured out that they weren't crazy... When Alison dressed up as a Scottish girl and pretended that she was Priscila... It's ok, Helen Keller used to steal things from other people's plates... getting the eight weekers face's painted and then saying grace... Christine choking on her fingers when she was trying to eat cornbread... Emily tackling everyone in bed... Maddie as Floppy... Lauren's amazing obsession with Shania Twain... our wonderful Scribe aide, Samantha... the duck joke and trying to touch the bottom of the lake... the talent show, great job ladies, especially Lily and Bailey when the music would not start for their gymnastics routine... Katie Davis' somersaults across her canoe bed... Anna always breaking out in song... Carly and Claire as our amazing athletes... Sara, Kate and Alison our neatest campers, haha... 'Uncle' Jessi... Claire always helping the counselors out and being our voice of reason, thank you so much hon.

Remember... Saying goodbye to our four-weekers, Katie, Valentina, Big Mac, Christine, Claire, Steph and Zippy... and quickly greeting Green and White, Emily and Bailey as captains and co's on green versus Carly and Jessi on white... Congratulations Warriors and Grizzlies you both did great! We then said goodbye to our six-weekers Valerie, Jess, Lily, Bailey, Carly, Anna, Kate and Emily.

Remember... Excursion with the boys... Day one: Attitash, Flying down the Alpine slide... Next we were off to bowling with the so very friendly bowling man... "Can I just talk to my kids for one second!"

adventure to Ham Arena... you girls were terrific thank you so much... and finally the boys came to the rescue and we all went putt-putting, dinner at McDonalds and a movie!

Tumblers and Jesters thank you for an amazing summer. I started as a timid eight year old girl in the Realm and the twenty-three of you allowed me to grow and learn as we led each other through the summer, and for that I will never forget you girls. This summer would not have been possible if not for our amazing staff. I am forever indebted to the nine of you; each of you added your unique outlook. Thank you so much. Emily, Jenn, Kristina, Caroline, Heather and Karen: You were put in a challenging situation, and you all were amazing. Thank you for your understanding of my lack of experience as a GL and your time and dedication to the kids. Kailey: You were always there for me and the kids, and the kids loved you! Bernstein: It was amazing to watch you this summer. I can't wait to see you in the future... don't lose your love for this place, it's your best tool as a counselor. Nati: You were my sanity this summer. Whenever I felt myself slipping away, you were there to pull me back, with and without the kids! I've waited eleven long years to lead a group my own way, and you allowed me to do just that. I honestly can not imagine doing it with anyone else... please keep coming back, Robin Hood needs people like you. Keep in touch this year, I love you!

Jesters and Tumblers of 2002: even though our summer has come to an end you are some of the luckiest girls in the world, because you have your entire Robin Hood career ahead of you. Please keep in touch with each other. You girls have just been introduced to your best friends in the world. I love you all, Smendel. ♡

To my lovely Bows, Its so hard to believe that the summer of 2002 has come and gone, and within those short two months, we had the chance to laugh, cry, whine, smile, eat, sleep and most importantly, be together and become a wonderful group. You guys truly made my summer unforgettable, each and every memory is so clear in my mind and will hold in my heart forever. BUT, just in case you all forgot about a few fun times here and there, I want you to sit down now, take a break from the real world, and read about so many of the awesome times we had this past summer in the realm.

Remember tubing and Aubrey, Amanda, Jenny and Lindsay laughing hysterically while Stringer was driving, ice hockey tournament Lindsay vs. Allie and Jill as the zamboni, JCAC scavenger hunt and getting Pascal's chest hair; Giants, Wizards and Elves and Alicia could not stop laughing; doing the talent show and making the shirts which were awesome. Remember Konrad throwing Cara in the water, Lili and Jenny always correcting Alicia, Erika thinking the fan was moving by itself, Cara breaking the gate, Estefanie always pretending she was from Tennessee, every time Kim needed to ask Cara a question, she was either changing or unchanging, when Eric came to visit, INGA our Swiss camper, Brittany winning the rock star contest at the social.

Remember sailing for 2 hours, when Justine and Bia went sailing and Bia bumped her head on the boom, when Jimena pushed Allison off the maid marion and jumped out, when Aubrey and Jimena capsized in the 2ft area, Jimena almost getting banned from sailing. My god girls, I think we spent a little too much time at sailing!! Remember when Jenny made Erika and Lili look for a marching picture that wasn't there, dancing on the ping pong table and when Marilyn busted a move to "Baby got back", dressing the Saxons up as "Scribes" for evening activity, Brittany screaming, "I don't have pants," writing on the walls when you weren't supposed to, when Sasha kept falling, Lindsay's "Oh my goodness," when a bird pooped on Amanda's head on beach day, when Estefanie and Brittany put hot dogs in the bug juice, Brittany taking a shower with her sock on, Kim trying to slice her food in the fan, Estefanie getting her hair stuck in the drill in wood, when Ginny broke her glasses and they were never fixed, Allie hating fluff and cheesy nuggets, face masks (peel offs), timing at the waterfront and Jill and Amanda's bottoms came off, Kim spilling milk on her head and Bia falling off the bench, when Allie and Brittany said potato, potato colalala, stevo's theme song, Bloody mess!, when the sink went crazy and caused a shower in the bathroom, AI and VH, everyone stealing Sasha's Barney and putting it in the toilet, when Allie, Vicki and Brittany "talked to the Foresters," fudge-monkey, Vicki's very special shorts, when Jill, Amanda and Vicki were famous, 50% off eggbeaters, when Ginny, Brittany, Kim and Estefanie were fabulous in the play.

Remember all of the places we went out of camp... making out the word ice cream with the treasure hunt and then everyone harassing the boy at Cozy Corner, its too bad his mouth was too large! Or going on the canoe trip and not getting to canoe, the crazy people at the campsite on the canoeing trip, seeing Spiderman and also bowling with the Archers, going on the mountain trip but not really climbing the mountain, losing the gold earring and Amanda trying to tell Jenny that she could fit under the steps, almost finding $50 in the bathroom, the playday at Birchmont and killing them in softball.

Remember changing count off numbers all of the time, when our second 4-weekers came and everyone thought Justine would be mean because of her name, having to say goodbye to our first 4-weekers at parents weekend. Remember the balloon fake break and then the actual break of running to the waterfront during spud to see the plane and then running and following the fire truck. Remember Sarah and Molly living in our cabin and being your counselors for 5 days. Remember the Green Grizzlies and the White Warriors, our group captains Allie and Lindsay and co-captains Amanda and Bia, you all did so well! Remember some exciting moments like the newcomb game, or when we played frof and Amanda and Biz said, "is that my frisbee?", you all learning the songs and singing so well. Honestly, you all made me so proud during color war, I loved watching all of you playing the sports and showing great sportsmanship. Remember having to carry Alicia's bed all the way back from the far, far field on lazy day. I can't wait to watch you all as a judge next year.

Remember excursion and all of the fun places we went to. Stopping at the seaweed beach for lunch and getting shrimp in our bathing suits, Water Country and Jimena never leaving the lazy river ride. The first night, Maria and Marina doing an awesome job putting up the tents, when Biz, Allison, Allie and Lindsay left Amanda in the tent in the middle of the night. Remember doing laser tag when Vicki kept shooting at herself, when everyone got Justine out, when the counselors beat the campers, everyone getting long water bottles, the counselors trying to persuade Biz to get Jake a present, and then Canobie Lake park when Vicki and Amanda couldn't control their mouths on the big coaster, when Vicki made friends with the big bald guy on the roller coaster, Amanda making out with her tee-shirt, buying the elmo and butterfly balloon, Vicki's nun bun. Remember Vicki and Bia making up mad libs and Vicki falling asleep in the middle of it, when Amanda and Biz got yellow sunglasses, Jimena spilling her baby bottle in the tent and leaving the door open, when Vicki ran into the tires at the go-karting and the guy had to come over and drive her car for her, pizza barn, and loving Dave - the bus driver.

Remember when Estefanie and Brittany weren't gossiping, when Lindsay didn't have a glasses tan, when Marina and Maria weren't clean, when Sasha wasn't swinging, when Vicki wasn't making a goofy face during a freeze, when Allie didn't get out at freeze, when there weren't flying ants, when Alicia wasn't craving Amanda's haircut, when Jill had nothing under her bed, when Jimena stayed seated at meals, when Marilyn wasn't reading Harry Potter... WE DON'T!

This summer was unforgettable in so many ways, and it could not have been what it was without our wonderful staff. Jenny, Rosemary, Erika, Cara, Toshi, Rachel and Nicola, I can't thank you enough for all of the work you did this summer. We were a great team together from beginning to end, and your efforts and enthusiasm were endless. Cara, Toshi, Rachel and Nicola, although you were all busy with your own specialties, you made time for our group and for each other and I truly thank you for that. Rosemary and Erika, I am so happy I got to know you two so well, and you both were outstanding through and through. Thank you for cooperating with me, standing beside me and honoring my requests. And to Jen, I knew we had become close, but working side by side made our friendship so much stronger. You will be a wonderful leader next summer and I hope I showed you the potential for the future, keep coming back, its well worth it. Diet.com - support system to the end, its going to be rough next summer being without you girls, you are in my past, my present and I know you all will be in my future. COME BACK, please. And to AP - we did it, and we will forever have it together. Its just that simple.

Bows, I don't know how many times I laughed with you all this summer, you gave me so much energy and happiness throughout the two months, I can't thank you enough for being the best group in camp. You took me back to the simple joy of being at camp. Each and everyone one of you are so special, I truly hope you all keep coming back to each other every summer, and to me for 5 days! I love you all.
- Love, Alicia ☺

WE DON'T!!!!

Remember Excursion... breaking the floor the night before we left, the ping pong table falling through, Day one, Six Gun City, Kidder, Jenna, Rose and Mara go-carting, riding the bumper boats, beating the green team in laser tag by a huge margin, meeting Paul, lying about your ages, yelling "I love Ya", remember the beginning of the candy buying frenzy, entering the campsite, "Is this a joke?", HoBo Hills, mini golf, walking through the course backwards, to get to the beginning, tattoos, surviving the wind storm, Cristina and Cecilia getting stuck in the tent, screaming for the staff, Jenna's difficulty opening the van door, moving tents, moving the cars... Remember Day Two, breakfast at Dunkin Donuts, off to Loon Mountain, or HoBo Hills again, dressing for winter, the Gondola skyride, meeting at the top and climbing through glacial caves-and you all thought the staff wouldn't make it through!!!, going to the lookout, buying more candy, gearing up for the roller-blading park, Lauren and Liv skateboarding, Ilyse ripping her favorite pair of jeans, falling, "Rose can I have some water?", the scary weather at Whales Tale, Anna going down the speed slide and was exposed half way into the ride, Jedla covering her with a mat, group tube sliding with Jenna, eating camp-made fajitas and s'mores (thanks to our chefs, Kidder and Rose), ice cream, the pouring rain... Remember Day Three, waking up really early, "are we climbing a mountain?", our canoe trip down the Saco River, singing G&W songs the whole way down, getting picked up by Sam, riding back with Sam, 10 push-ups!, Ilyse tripping over a root, Jed, Liv and Anna's splashing fight, Lauren counting everyone off, "Are we going shopping?", Attitash Alpine sliding, singing L-O-V-E songs in line, getting weird looks, Anna and Liv coming down twenty minutes later then everyone with about ten angry-looking people behind them, a dad shouting, "it's safe, you can go faster!", remember dinner and Austin Powers 3 with the Yeomen, the van rides with Rose and Jenna, Anna, Ilyse and Lauren getting kicked out of the front seat, Lauren forgetting everything!...

Remember the last weeks of camp... the obsessions with pantsing, telling the staff bunk to be quiet, sneezing, playing greasy watermelon, the goldfish swimming in Cristina's soup, the last canoe trip, watching Lord of the Rings, tie dying, "Is there inspection?", finding a new item that Clara forgot everyday, remember the contests, apple carving, fry eating, cakes & cleanliness, making up different ways to count off instead of going to bed... hehehe

To my staff-Kidder, what can I say? You are such a gifted person and I cannot even begin to tell you how blessed I was to have you as my AGL. Your spirit, athleticism, kindness and love for camp was felt by everyone you associated with and we love you for it! Good luck with your senior year, by the time you get this I hope you are well on your way to join me in NJ-no pressure... thanks again! Marissa, Maite & Jenna- you ladies were incredible this summer, you were all like my right-hand women, you never complained and were always so willing to help out. You possessed all the qualities a GL looks for in her staff. I hope this summer strengthened your love for camp and that you will never stop coming back. Good luck with everything, I love you all. To my speciality, Claire, Rose, Alison, Megan, Becks & Sophie-although most of you were extremely busy all summer, I cannot express to you how thrilled I was every time you approached me during a free period and offered to help. I know the girls loved seeing your smiling faces at activities with them when you didn't have to be. You each contributed so much to our group, your enthusiasm, skills, encouragement and willingness to help was very much appreciated. Thank you for making my summer run so smoothly. To my girls-this summer was huge for us. I feel like we all became so close in our own little ways. I'm so glad you all chose to come back for at least a couple weeks, it shows how strong of a grasp this place has on our hearts. I will never forget the times we shared as they are ingrained in my mind forever. I love you all so much and thank God for bringing us together years ago!

Quills, you girls were amazing this summer! Each and every one of you were so special in your own way. Being the largest group at the Realm, you contributed so much to Girls Camp... your incessant cheering in the dining hall, your smiles, laughs, hugs, talents and friendships stayed strong throughout. You girls made my first summer as a group leader unforgettable and so rewarding. I hold a special place for each of you in my heart and I hope you will cherish these memories from the summer of 2002 forever! I expect to see you all back next summer, ready to ensure that Girls Camp and the traditions at Robin Hood stay strong, you are all capable of accomplishing so much-good luck with your school year and keep in touch... I love you all! - Love Always, Mara ☺

It's getting hot in here
Arrows have no fear
It's time to relive your best year
At Camp Robin Hood!

Lizzy, Dana, Michele, AC, Alexia, Annie, Kenzie, Nikki, Hannah, Molly, Lexie, Zoe, Audrey, Lily, Becca, Lindsay, Emily, Sarah, Alejandra, Allie R., Yssie, Kelsey, Carolyn, Allie S., Sonny, Springer, Sarah S., and Tuck... Sit on your bed, turn on a campish song (preferably mix #2 song 11) and get ready to remember the craziness and excitement of the summer of 2002!

Remember showing up on the first day, June 25th, to find out that you were all in the same bunk as last year yet with a new addition 'the Arrow pad'... the first evening activity being an intense game of bombardment... Futter pegging you all down one by one...

Remember all of our fun evening activities... the lipsync... the fashion show (cave women adorned with tree bark)... seeing Mr. Deeds with the Lancers... Lily's and Lauren's 'hey laudies' on the bus... paper bag skits... going to ice cream... family feud (the Shorties vs. the Tall family... yeah Shorties, we are glad to be your close relatives)... tie dying (everything in sight)... challenging the Lancers to capture the flag and bombardment... the Bake-off (we showed those boys how its done!)... Sbarra (Shire Bard Arrow Ridiculous Ridonkulous Activities)... Audrey and Sarah R. rolling the rusty grass flattener in the backwards scavenger hunt... spa night... going to White Lake and Pizza Barn... the "rock-star" and "the decades" themed socials... the power going out during the social on the basketball court... watching "The Fast and the Furious" with the Lancers and Friars... all camp movie night on the quad... getting candy canteen EVERY night...

Remember the 4th of July and the intense heat wave... Emily's birthday and everyone singing the Lion King in the shower room with Alejandra's masks... the team activities on the soccer field... Freaky trying to get the entire camp into a circle (his efforts failing)... Ogunquit Beach Day... it raining for part of the day and the entire camp running for cover on the boardwalk... going to huckleberry's for dinner with the boys, dip n' dots (little balls of ice cream can be so good!)... girl's campfire on Sunday night and sitting with your little sisters, making presents and receiving gifts from our secret summer sisters... Dana's Birthday on the 30th... Allie Sneider's birthday on visiting day and all her grandparents coming to visit...

Remember our times in the bunk... playing cards on the floor... the mini tennis games played over Molly's hockey goals on the porch... Annie, Lily, and Lexie's lemonade and Gatorade shots... Sonny getting bat mitzvah help from Dana, and Chuck (Mazel Tov!)... Springer and Lexie poking (who's got the first poke after getting the yearbook?), Becca doing everyone's hair, AC learning Spanish and Alejandra learning French from each other at night... Lizzy's back massages (our future masseuse)... Lexie and Springer's wild flossing... Lauren saying 28TA in the middle of her sleep... the churrel and squabbit...

Remember Allie Russo's accident and how excited we were that she was so tough and strong and decided to stay for the whole 6 weeks despite her injury, Carolyn and Mackenzie dressing Allie and bathing her (what good friends!)... Zoe, Annie, Lily and Sonny making the camouflage Founder's Day Adirondack chair... the four of them having to clean the "Let Grandad Do It" apron and getting razors and all kinds of soap involved (what a production)... Alexia and Audrey helping out at the stables during the day... Dana and Lauren's 'everything sandwiches' at Sunday night dinner... 11 minute abs with Abs... Lily sending Jake to the dentist... spying on the Lancers... NALGENE ball...

Remember our playday at camp versus Robindel, Dana legit flying across homebase after the catcher tripped her, winning all the sports that we played that day... the swim meet at Robindel... the intense wind and killer waves... Lindsay blowing all the other camps out of the water... the 15 and under softball tournament (congrats to the champions: Annie, Sarah S., Allie S., and Molly)... the Birchmont playday... running through the sprinkler during the tennis matches because it was soo hot... Lauren and Emily harassing the male counselors to get us ice cream for the bus ride home (good work girls!)... Hannah and Lauren scoring in the soccer game... the tennis tournaments... the mountain trip up Mount Wildcat (no serious injuries)... all the NEB count-offs while members of our group were out of camp (the color count-off and the months of the year count-off)...

Remember our obsession with Aussie Rules and Danish Long Ball... Kelsey and Julia never being on the same team and always being really competitive against each other (we definitely had fun!)... Zoe singing in the talent show to the Little Mermaid... the step-squad dance on talent night (you made us proud Zoe, Lily, Sonny, Alexia, Nikki, Springer, Lexie, and Carolyn)... Nikki as a hot box dancer in the play (you were incredible!)...

Remember when Lexie, Lily and Audrey were first to benches... when Allie Sneider was last to benches... when Allie Russo wasn't smiling... when Lauren had her clothes on... when Molly didn't have whipped crème on her face... when Becca and Yssie weren't braiding people's hair... when you all weren't playing cards... when we saw a flag raising... when the toilets weren't clogged... WE DON'T!

Remember Green and White... the fire truck and the airplane coming into camp to break the war... AP and Felish heading the Green Grizzlies against Beetle and Brandon's White Warriors... our group captains Lexie and Annie and our co-captains Carolyn and Dana... Mackenzie's birthday during the war...

Remember excursion... going to funtown/splashtown... Dr. Dra breaking the tree (and then fixing it)... the Mary-Kate and Ashley visor... the fat kid on the motor cars who banged into Michele... Lauren harassing the "wanna be japs"... cops and robbers with the horse and goats at the campsite... nicknames at bowling... paying for showers... our AMAZING fajitas... pitching tents (the most makeshift job ever!)...

Remember Annie showing up at Freeport to meet us... everyone buying Nalgene bottles... Sarah naming her stuffed animal Nalgene... Nikki and her convent... the big adventure center... Annie breaking into laser tag and all of us following... Mackenzie flicking off the random guy during laser tag... our party room and watching TV during dinner... the lean-to...

Remember mountain biking... more like riding the chairlift up and down and up and down and up and down... Alejandra and Annie speeding down the mountain... ERIC and his life story... when Kenz went into the men's bathroom... our arrow t-shirts... Keely, Futter, and Julia dressing up like NH townies at the t-shirt store... SRTEET... seeing Heather at McDs... the girl jumping on Zoe in the ballpit... Remember our favorite bus driver DON... getting him the card and some chocolate... our speed bus... Don crying when we had to leave... the best excursion ever!

Finally... to our staff... we couldn't have asked for a better group of 8 other people to work with... Keely, Futter, Agin, Cherie, Vicki, Elin, Meghan and Megan... I can't thank you all enough for all your hard-work, dedication and enthusiasm...

General Staff: Keely you are deserving of your FREE good citizen of the year shirt... keep the Wilson SRTEET School under control... you are just great... Futter you are hilarious and I will forever laugh hysterically imagining you jump head first out of my screen to escape from the attack of the rabid squirrel... please come back... Agin we are so happy that you kept extending your stay... losing you after 4 weeks would have been awful...

Specialty Staff: Cherie and Vicki we can't thank you enough for all the dirty work (literally) that you both willingly did... you both are amazing counselors and people... we hope you come back next summer and good luck in everything you do... Elin thanks for everything this summer... please come back so we can play in the Green and White soccer game with you next year, you were awesome... Meghan we feel awful that you were on crutches for the last weeks or so... your creativity added so much to the group... Megan thanks for your help this summer and have a great year...

Last note from Julia: Arrows of 2002... when I come back in 7/8/09 and walk into the group leaders meeting being held by Chuck in the back office, I better see all your faces in the room holding clipboards with your names written all over them... you girls are unbelievable... I feel so lucky to have been your group leader two years in a row now and to have been able to see you all grow up... you girls have such a profound love for camp and are the future of this summer haven... spread the love you all share to those younger than you and keep the traditions in tact... 789ers and crew... let's all do it one more time together... you are the best friends in the world and I know we will stay that way forever...

Last note from Abi: We love you all... AND THEN WE FOUND $10 DOLLARS... ☺

BARDLETTTS! Yes, that's you—Lilo, Bacaw, Lauren, Twitch, Haimo, Kidder, Female Krummy, Bridgett Sparkles, Stealy Bacon, Stitch, Merwin, Stretch, Sweden, Nauseous, Sianypoo, Gabifer, JRitz, and J-what?! What a summer... we DID have a blast together. Here are just some memories (some in random order)...

I hope you look back on all these memories with smiles, because it was one incredibly awesome and hysterical summer. Sit back, relax, and relive...

Remember the first night—the M&M game, full value contracts and rules for the bunk... when Lauren and Tara invented the “Edna” bag puppet... our awesome game of capture the flag with the Friars, Foresters and the Shires and the Bards definitely trying the hardest of all four groups to actually capture the flag... Robyn's obsession with Mikey Howard, Andrew Arnot, Matt Szabo, and other such boys... running around the bunk at 10:00 PM in your bathing suits... our counselor makeovers... the insane amount of nakedness in the bunk... Gaby's potato person... Lizzy's lisp... Remember when Becca dove head first into the ice... ice skating multiple times... when Alex took a six dollar bet to talk to the Friars... Lizzy wearing a thong on her head...

when you guys played Name That Tune and the counselors stunned that you guys didn't even know who Bob Marley was... the four letter word speech...

Remember when Natasha (Nauseous), Becca, and Lizzy saved Rebertha from her burial at sea... when Laila held 20 cups on her hands during freeze... waking Tara up in the morning—yelling at her, rolling on her, jumping on her—and still not being able to wake her up... “destroying” your Robin Hood shirts to make them hoochy mama shirts... Tara's “shirt” ending up being a tube top and her asking the counselors if she could wear it to ice skating... Laila and Becca's extra juicy beef sirloin... Saxon's cheer about Gaby... the Vanilla Ice talent show dance... the group practicing it, while the counselors cracked up at how 80's the moves were... your amazing costumes stapled together by Natasha... the Miss America Pageant... Robyn's five-year-old voice... “I'M A LOSERRRRR”... Remember when you sat in the rain for an hour and fifteen minutes waiting for the West End game to start and then it got rained out... the clapping game in the dining hall... the ice and salt fights... your wonderful Toga Party at the outdoor theater with the Friars... when Mandy tried to get John to change the water pipes... Lizzy finally being able to count the number of days until her birthday on one hand and her letting everyone IN CAMP know about it... making smores at the outdoor theater... “Benches, Benches, read all about it”... “I'm a rose and a tulip”... DRAT-SAB!... SHIBBY!...

Remember Biggus Diggus... learning how to blow bubbles off your tongues—“I can't do it under pressure... Becca's Stitch voice, Stitch on crack, Stitch with a lisp, and Lisa's Stitch voice... painting the tree at art... Robyn telling the entire dining hall that Laila had trash and wipe... Katherine and Lizzy throwing Becca in a box, rolling her out of the cabin and then rolling her down the hill... Remember BAMAZING... Ogunquit day when Elyse, Tara, and Becca stayed in the fifty-five degree water for half an hour... then Becca turned white followed by blue... when Ali had to tuck Lizzy in and when Ali slept in Natalie's empty bed... SBARRA... "Hey Katherine, did you get freaky in the cabin!?"... Lammkölt... your war with the Friars—water fights during Spud and after Founder's day... Green and White—Natalie and Lisa as captains... when Andrea said "This is our VAR!"... baby-sitting during song practice... the White Warriors beating the Green Grizzlies...

Remember "Hey Jorge!"... staring games with the boys... cheap shots at Natalie during bombardment... middle of the night Dunkin Donuts... Tyler's comeback to camp... playing never-have-I-ever... "She's a prude!"... finding 200 pieces of gum inside the blue bag... eating four pounds of gummy bears in one day... Lauren and Max... being BIC spud players... Natalie's "WHOO!"... Robyn not being able to handle your version of hodgey podgey... Remember Tara constantly telling everyone she was taller than Robyn... Lisa thinking that she was topless... jumping into the lake with your clothes on... "Is it child abuse?"... when Becca and Lauren got locked out of the bunk in their underwear... QUADDING and the problems that came with that "sport"... Lauren getting pantsed at the Rendezvous... the mechanisms in Mandy's booty... Lauren's vomiting eye...

Remember "Cherry Chocolate Pizza—the kids LOVE IT!"... "We're watching you... we're still watching you"... Elyse's frof song... "I don't care if I get fat, as long as it tastes good!"... spleep... "Can we see your diamond's, Becca?"... "THIS TABLE'S OUT OF CONTROL!"... the wet white t-shirt contest featuring Natalie, Lizzy, and Andrea... "Come join us, we've got rugs!"... Remember when Becca was reborn... "Do you want a pink brush?"... "What's a synagogue?"... when Jane spent July 4th in the hospital... Ali's peeing jalapeno... Remember when Andrea broke the sink... the millions of games of BENNIS... "Human knot time" and "Human knot—legs included!"... the skinny tarantula in Becca's shower... going to see Mr. Deeds and you guys complaining that you wanted Chinese food... when we were down to five girls and you guys made up a new countoff... shard rules volleyball ...

And remember our wonderful excursion to Vermont... lawn ornaments everywhere... everyone getting measured... Skater Boy... rock climbing... alpine sliding with the boys... "ooooook"... the awkward seating at Austin Powers... Mandy's calzone being the size of her femur... our boy scouts... "Just because we are a small group doesn't mean we don't have feelings or comfort issues"... getting directions from sketchy Vermont motorcyclists so we could go bowling and be awful at it... and finally stargazing during the intense game of Truth or Dare!

I was amazed by each and every one of you this summer. This group truly came into it's own, forming bonds that will hopefully last a lifetime. Watching you guys grow by leaps and bounds this summer was so fulfilling. I am so proud to have been part of that experience with you. Come back for Shire summer... it only gets better! Also, Bard staff— you guys were incredible! Gaby and Jane—I know you guys were busy in your own specialties this summer, thank you for giving your all to the group when you had free time! Sian—Thank you! I couldn't have asked for more from a specialty counselor. I knew from precamp you were special... from then on, I always tried to be as good a counselor as you were. And Natasha—WOW! Watching you literally grow up has been amazing. I couldn't have left the group in better hands. You are a rockstar, a sister, a gfriend, and the bestest AGL in camp! Diet.com, 7-8-9, and crew—you are the reasons I return here every year. I'd be lost without you.

Thank you all for everything... I love you. You all will forever be in my heart!

Love, Robeanya ☺

Campers - Samantha Berschler, Lauren Brenner, Libby Copeland-Halperin, Lindsey Golden, Anna Halperin, Julia Helman, Rachel Kushma, Marla Madan, Kim Marx, Sarah Potts, Emily Stecher

Counselors - Fallyn Smith GL, Lisa Reitman GL, Starla Cogburn, Katy Douglas, Lauren Frank

"We are the Shires- check. That ain't no lie- check. And we go, hold up, wait a minute, put a little boom in it! Check us out, check check us out!" Girls- it is once again that time... get off AOL, turn off your cell phones and Don't Forget 'To Pay Attention! We don't think that there was ever a time when 11 campers and 5 counselors laughed so much, joked around so much, and had such a great time.

Remember the first day of camp- Emily, Julia and Sarah arriving first thing in the morning and having to wait all day for everyone else to get here playing the M&M game. Lisa eating all the M&Ms. Remember first week of camp: Libby going to sleep at 9 every night, thinking soh-cah-toa was something special, almost piercing Anna's ear, (until Fallyn thankfully intervened) Sarah and Marla running around the hunk trying to find clear water, capital O-B-N-O-X! Remember Sam and Emily's Connie musical, Alejandra's email, OEAH, and Libby's swollen eye. Hey Lindsey, are you "posOtive" that's how you spell "positive?" everyone laughing at her for the rest of the summer, same person alert, everyone showering together, Stecher's infamous cheer: "here we go Loyola, here we go!" Remember playing volleyball and screaming about how much we loved camp in front of random people: "girls-prospective parents... friends, friends, friends..." the obsession with Wee-Sing and Hebrew songs, the talent show dance (walk like an Egyptian was shutdown!), and Emily and Libby killing the beast twice!

Remember timing the swim meet and helping out at all the b-ball tournaments, Grandma Judy coming to visit and bringing salmon and chicken, jumping in the lake with our clothes on, the kitchen staff hating Lisa, "Sam is sitting all alone, no friends, no friends!" Remember SBARRA and being the team captains- coming up with team names and songs, the lip sync contest and the backwards scavenger hunt (Kim giving a show to the boys, running with brooms, tweezers and a LARGE metal grass crusher.)

Remember playing family feud: the Longs vs. the Wienersnitzels, name that tune and doing a mock G&W remember ice skating with the Foresters, Saxons and Scribes, watching movies (not Sillyville, sorry) and spending every rest hour with the boys. Canoeing with Simon and him screaming at Julia and Lindsey because they capsized and couldn't hear him yelling, Sarah wearing her hair in tons of braids and elastics and calling her Shaniqua, Lisa taking a crew to the marina and taking 45 minutes to get back. Remember Ogunquit: Sunday night preparations and Sydney spazzing at Sarah and Lisa, raining and everyone moving to the boardwalk, group dinner at Blue Water Inn, the car rides with Gersh and singing with him.

Remember hiking Mt. Washington... stopping at Freaky's house on the way there walking the first 2 miles in the pouring rain, getting to the halfway point and having a long lunch, then deciding that we wouldn't make it to the summit and began walking down the mountain. Then turning around and walking BACK up a different route... Lisa and Lauren turning around halfway and sleeping in the van while the rest of the group climbed to the summit. Remember falling and tripping over ourselves as we hiked, going to the bathroom ALL the time, the snowball fight at the top of the mountain. Sarah spilling chili all over herself... everyone buying t-shirts and calling their parents going to Wendy's and returning to camp as sore as can be (but only after stopping at the library).

Remember when: We went to the West End game to cheer on the boys b-ball team, kubnub chants, Greg Dansey #10, going to the movies with the Friars and Foresters and Samantha slipping in the middle of the movie theater, having everyone laughing at Lindsey instead of at the movie, going bowling and reaching Jakob how to bowl and watching the locals. Who could forget getting all ready to shovel horse poo and then actually doing it! The counselors not really expecting you to, but you all did! Going to Cozy Corner instead of picking up hay with Corbin. Remember Rachel and Kim arriving and completing the Shire group. Remember playing strip hockey with a surprise visit from Alex and PJ, capturing the Tumblr/Jesters for pizza, Lisa's checklist and forcing all of you to get check marks, being on duty on Sunday night. Rachel and Marla had to sit for the hockey players... Julia and

Anna never getting released. Remember watching countless beautiful sunsets at the waterfront, the incredible amounts of food in each room, NEVER being at flag raising in the morning, and always being the loudest and most random group in the dining hall.

Remember Green and WhiteThe White Warriors vs. Green GrizzliesAnna and Stecher as captains, doing activities with the Bards and Scribes... everyone doing a great job dancing, leading cheers, playing sports and leading girls camp. Both teams making B-Shribes benches to put in front of the dorms. White winning the war but Green putting up a very tough fight. G&W highlights: Julia winning the spelling bee, the hot salsa dance and the nike dance, Sam, Emily and Sarah leading cheers, the intense ultimate game and the great softball game, Stecher's Linda Richmond skit. You girls were all spirited and fantastic leaders and kept up the G&W intensity the entire 5 days.

Remember Montreal excursion: waking up early and singing reveille over the loudspeaker TWICE because we forgot to turn it onthe YWCA was NOT a hotel, but more like a hole in the wall. Since the first day, fighting with the woman at the desk about the keyscoed bathrooms, no locks on the doors, room 712 was basically a sauna, our bunk beds were lettered A to F... Day 1 consisted of non-stop shopping and non-stop eatingseeing Austin Powers and half of the group falling asleep-Sarah getting into a fight with Lisa and Cara about the fanStecher falling asleep in Lisa's bed, having so much trouble counting all of you because you were all sleeping in each other's beds. How many times did we hear: "you don't tell us what you did, we don't tell you what we did!" Day 2 was more shopping and more eating, then jetboating with the For-esters and Patrice- the best looking man we'd ever seen. Cara being jealous that Patrice touched Sam's hand. Lisa and Squeek banging heads and everyone getting soaking wet, Margo and Stecher going to put money in the meter and taking forever. Dinner at Lisa's house, then going to the amusement park, Coop and Pascal too scared to go on the rides so they held bags all night, Julia, Sam and Anna running around to get to checkpoint on time. 1205 and 1407 were favorite numbers "We're going out now, do you know what that means?" Day 3 white water rafting and our crazy guide Rick randomly singing old G&W songs "Scream b----- scream!!" Marla falling out of the boat more than 20 timesthe mermaid (does she have an actual name?)eating those wonderful sandwiches and all the vegetables and diptrying to figure out what the place really was (club med?)back in Montreal- Sanzibar and Tracy... hanging out with the boys, FINALLY getting some check marks!! Day 4: a massive breakfast, getting yelled at by the woman at the YWCA for losing the keyLisa's country house and her crazy cousin Sarahdriving with no gas for 30 minutes... Being told that what happens in Canada STAYS there!!! Shire shirts- not so much!! Burlington- SO much fun! Dinnernope! Vermonsternope! Conwaynope! Driving 80 miles in the wrong direction and eating subwayup!

Remember the last few days: making the time capsule and burying it before Libby leftthe results of the famous sponge-off are inside!!! Anna and Libby- the two cousins battling it out for BIC sponger. Worst in Camp at freeze: Samantha, most improved at freeze: Marla. Remember making the Shire mix and having "It's getting hot in here" 4 times on the tape, making smores at the outdoor theater and Kim eating about 10Marla and Stecher's food competitions at the meals

(Marla forgetting that she was allergic to chocolate), constantly singing songs and TV show theme songs at every meal. Remember watching the meteor shower that didn't really happen, finishing the Shire adirondack chair, dye-dyeing anything possible. Remember the final girls campfire, lighting the candles all together and already talking about next summer as Scribes. Remember Sam hitting trees during the home-run derby, and all of you purposely not catching the balls to get points for each otherRemember the late-night food sessions, playing the camp game, and constantly clogging the toilets. (Thank God for Christina!)

Remember when we weren't playing volleyball, when we went to waterfront and went sweeeming, when Heather wasn't stalking half of you, when you weren't being random, when you actually stayed in the boats, when we weren't eating. Remember when Libby wasn't ALWAYS asking questions, Brenner wasn't always squealing and Anna actually had good taste in guys. Remember Stecher wasn't always singing Sillyville songsImagine if Julia and Lindsey were on time for benches, if Sarah wasn't hungry, if Marla could hear, or if Kim wore a one-piece bathing suit. Remember when Rachel wasn't reading, Helman was running, we weren't listening to "It's getting hot in here," Fallyn wasn't having fun with Rhea Pearlman, Starla wasn't playing basketball, Kate wasn't eating goldfish, Lauren wasn't acting like a 2 year old and Lisa wasn't legit sweating (or eating chicken out of a bowl)... WE DON'T!!

SHIRES: you are an incredible group of girls that have grown into independent and mature young women. You are all each such an integral part of the group and your love for each other is so strong. We have watched you change over the summer and cannot help but see your undying love for Robin Hood. From participating in activities with you, to cheering and singing in the dining hall, you have all proved countless times that you are ready to be Scribes next summer. We know that you will do a fabulous job leading girls camp and there is no doubt in our minds that the younger girls will all look up to you and admire you. Your spirit and energy is contagious, and we could not have asked for a better group of girls. Thank you for giving us the best summer ever, we can't wait to see you back at the realm next summer. Love always, Lisa and Fallyn.

Starla, Lauren and Kate: You were absolutely incredible this summer and helped us with so much. You were always there to lend a hand and to take charge when you knew that it needed to be done.

The girls have so much respect for each of you, as do Fallyn and I. We had a great time with you this summer (especially at Sunday meetings) and we could not have asked for better staff. Thank you so much for everything, you helped to make the summer a great one.

Fallyn: From day one, I knew that we would work perfectly together. We compliment each other in so many ways, and I do not think that I could have lasted this summer without you. I know that our friendship will only continue to grow, I love you. ♡

Well girls, its that time again when we need to put our homework down or for Samantha, the flash cards, sit back and reminisce about the best summer of our lives where you were the leaders of Camp Robin Hood. That's right girlies, its time to go back to the summer of 2002 when we were known as the loud, fun loving Scribes...

Remember: Never making it to flag raising... Samantha working for the Tumbler Jesters, Fany working with the Bows or was it waterfront since she was there all the time, Gillian working with the Quills, Sydney working with the Arrows Bonding with Michael... Having Anna stalk us, Samantha getting caught by Fallyn... Samantha falling on her face trying to reenact the night... Samantha's crush... Fallyn being Syd's mommy... marking the Scribe Territory everywhere... "running the small loop..." Syd cheering up whenever Heaven came on the radio... reading the tops of the cereal boxes for entertainment... Staff always using our bathroom... never Remember Excursion: Not eating breakfast since we were going to Dunkin Donuts. Getting there and turning around since the line was too long. Eating at a gas station with Sydney and Gill's healthy breakfast; pints of Ben and Jerry's ice cream. Getting to Good

Times and getting right into the food line. Fallyn dropping her pizza on the ground. Laser Tag-Red Team vs. Green Team. Samantha getting the highest score. "What's your name?"... "UhDavid" Not being able to understand anything "David" said. Being crazy on the bumper cars. Tony hooking us up with a free ride. Taking pics with Tony. The "cool" machine that drew our picture or just making a photocopy of it. Fitting four girls in a two person seat. Fallyn opting the caricature picture which was awful. On the road, running red lights and making comments to the Mexican car next to us. Remember Blue Man Group. Dressing all in black. Feeling a little out of place wearing sweat pants with everyone else in skirts and nice black pronouncing Fany's name correctly... "Say my name correctly Sydney, FaNY!"... Syd's tantrums... always complaining about people taking the water and gumfighting with Stecher and Arnot for Gillian's mattress and picking out of a hat... showering in the broken upstairs shower and ALWAYS BICKERING!!!

How can we forget the Talent Show. Going through every possible act and nothing working out. Finally deciding on a dance with the Saxons or should we say the most inappropriate act ever!

Remember Ogunquit: Trying on bathing suits weeks before the actual day. Finally deciding the night before what to wear. Riding with the Foresters. Never stepping in the water. The rain shower. Eating at Blue Water Inn. Gill and Sam's Lobster. Stopping on the ride home. Gillian getting a surprise, Syd hugging a tree to relax the muscles.

Remember deciding who is going on Katahdin. Gil ending up being the only scribe on the trip. Congrats, babe! Remember Parents Visiting Day... The Ziman's coming with sushi. Saying goodbye to Fany. Giving the memoir box. Emma finally arriving after not seeing her for a year... going out to eat with the parents... Sydney's Dad getting lost and then pulled over with Syd and Samantha. Remember Color War: Gill and Syd on the white and Sam and Emma on the Green. Gill and Emma's senior camp speeches. Great job girls, those were beautiful. Samantha's skit of Hans and Frans. Gillian and Sydney dancing it up in the Senior Camp dance. The war really showed us that you were the true leaders of camp. Emma, Gillian, Samantha, and Sydney, you made us so proud showing how you exemplify leadership, competition, and friendship all at the same time.

pants. Our wonderful leader, Nancy. "Do you guys hate me?" The hot Blue Man on the left for Fallyn. Emma, Sam, and Fallyn leading everyone to the wrong section. Emma being so polite. The big guy flirting with Christina. Getting hit on by the BU honors group. Christina yelling at the man for using his camera. And how can we forget the woman sitting next to Samantha laughing like a hyena at everything then taking her shirt off at the end. And of course, the smallest bathroom in the world. Eating so much at California Pizza Kitchen and Samantha and Gillian still getting dessert. Going back to Fallyn's. Syd and Samantha setting the house alarm off in the middle of the night. Everyone sleeping horizontally in two beds. The awful rolling sound. Gillian finally moving and sleeping in normal position. Remember the manicures and pedicures with the Asian women yelling at you. Gillian's black and blue toe. Going to Canton Market for some goodies. Samantha flirting with the cashier. "Which one is better?" Heading to Newbury Street. The great lunch at Joe's. Emma being the only one to make a purchase. Gill, Syd, and Sam getting their make up done. Syd, Sam, Gill, Eli, Scott, and Arnot getting lost going to Dick's. Emma and Christina coming to the rescue. Gillian on the phone with three different people trying to find where they were. Who can forget Dick's Last Resort? Stevenson serving everyone drinks. No one understanding why the waitress was so rude. After dinner going to the Science Museum. Well, driving for an hour lost in Boston, going through a red light, as well as going the wrong way down a one way street. Missing the laser show by five minutes. Watching Australia, the worst omni show ever. Syd and Sam conveniently feeling sick and sending emails to their parents instead. Samantha jumping over a stall and getting a huge bruise. Going to the boy's hotel after. The fenced in pool and the party. The magazine men. Christina giving a self defense lesson. Going Rock climbing with our guide, Dave. Spending hours on one wall. Practicing belaying all day long. Gill's arm injury. Christina being a professional rock climber. Finding out we were going to Santana. Getting ready in Heather's room. Listening to Sublime and Vanilla Ice. Driving with the Saxons to the concert. Fallyn's crazy driving causing Samantha to fall off the seat. The crazy people dancing. Syd getting tips from the "spinning lady". Mark and Sarah hooking the Scribes up as well as the forty year old man JC's confession to Samantha. "Some crazy girl just spilled on me!". The mystery burrito Eli purchased. Stone and Syd reunited.

Fallyn making French toast in the morning. Going to Fanueil Hall. Having the AMAZING Italian lunch. The traveling camp or were they "progidies?" Getting lost on the way back to camp. Going to Go Carts spontaneously. Gill lying to Fallyn. "Was I supposed to tell the truth?" Getting passed by the New Hampshire family with the twelve year old biddy that almost took out Fallyn and Gill. Going to the movics with the Saxons. Playing with the puppies. The manager yelling at us during the movie. The sketchy locals who were after the Saxons. Getting harassed by the Saxons in the parking lot.

Key terms for excursion: legit... I mean... are ya kidding?... eh?. How can we forget the massive amount of food Fallyn's mom bought. Mispronunciations and everyone correcting everyone... Always saying, "Fallyn we have a question but you'll get mad"... And of course, the CONSTANT BICKERING! Remember the last few days of camp... giving your Scribe speeches... they were all amazing... your love for camp and each other was so visible and will always be appreciated... the hockey boys... Syd and Emma having a little too much fun... Saxons in the bunk at all times... Fallyn screaming everytime trying to get them out... Christina harassing you late night then taking care of herthe time capsule... Awards night Congrats to Emma, Gillian, Sydney and Samantha for winning group awards... and we also must remember the saddest part, saying goodbye.

Remember when: The Scribes were the best group ever... WE DO!!!!

Scribes: Well, that was our amazing summer in a nutshell... I hope this brought back all these good memories plus more. We are so happy we got to spend our summer with you. We have seen you grow up at this camp and go through the ranks of a camper and now its your time to experience being a counselor. Each of you will be amazing counselors with your constant smiling faces and overflowing amounts of love. We couldn't have asked for a better Scribe group and a better summer. You have proven yourselves as beautiful, mature young women. Thank you for the best summer of our lives. We hope you had a blast. The best of luck to each of you and we can't wait for you to be on our staff for the years to come. Keep smiling and laughing. We love you! Love Always, Fallyn and Lisa Christina: Thank you so much for this summer. You were exactly what the group needed; a self assured counselor who was fair and followed the rules while having the greatest time ever. Even though you were at the waterfront for the day, you still put all your effort into establishing a relationship with the girls. You are respected highly by the girls as well as Lisa and me. Thank you so much for everything. You were amazing.

Lisa- What can I say... we did it. It was more than a pleasure to be your co-groupleader. We complimented each other in every way. I have never worked so well with a person before. I am so grateful for our friendship that has developed over the years and now is stronger than ever. Thanks again. Love you Always-Fallyn

From left to right (or whatever order we are in): The office lady, the other office lady, and the mean office lady. Also known as Harriet, from England, Sofia, from Greece, and Lise, from France.

Ever wonder who sorted the humongous amounts of mail you guys get daily, who printed your bunknotes (Our brand new one-way email system for this year!), or wrote all those phone messages which we knew would inevitably get lost? Well ...tada ... this was part of our summer job – running the front office at Camp Robin Hood!

We would all like to apologize (well, especially Sofia and Lise) for our thick accent on the pager and for taking your candies away (no matter what you think we actually don't enjoy doing it).

We would like to thank all of you guys who helped us with the mail, including David Woodstein, Estefanie Moreno, Craig Freifelder, Alex Rikleen, Jake Schwarz and Josh Simon. The Foresters of '02 are definitely the best. I hope you guys enjoyed all the Intra-Camp mail – Lise's fantastic new idea which we hope will continue in years to come.

We would ask all the campers to take better care of your clothing in future, so we don't have to deal with huge amounts of stinky lost and found, including dirty socks and underwear (yes!). And then of course the soda line, our favorite part of the day! Thanks to all people that helped, Jason Dobry, Stevenson Porter-Bell & Peter Rodriguez just to name a few. And boys, there will be no more cutting the soda line (Yes, I am talking to you, Senior Camp!). Take example from the girls, they always ask politely, and stay in a neat line, and guess what... they get their soda much faster!

So thank you all for a great summer, you never know, we might come back next year... ☺

ARCHERY

SIAN FENNEL & ALISON PINCHIN

This has been an exciting year for archery at Robin Hood, with balloons and tennis balls being amongst the most popular forms of targets.

The 15th Annual Robin Hood Archery Invitational was a big success, even though Robin Hood failed to achieve a medal placing in either age category. The 15 and under team was made up of Libby Copeland-Halperin (183), Alex Rikleen (226), Alex Merwin (146), Allie Sneider (129), Nick Chandler-Klein (215) and Esteban Hernandez, whilst the 12 and under team consisted of John Solomon (203), Myles Stavis (148), Josh Rowe (116), Charlie Nathanson (93), Paul Grossman (101) and Sam Jonas (155). Fun was had by all and our teams showed great enthusiasm with John Solomon and Alex Rikleen coming first in their age groups. Allie Sneider shot particularly well, considering she took part for the older age group even though she was only twelve at the time.

Around twenty children shot for archery awards, with Libby, Allie, Esteban, John, Nick, Alex and Paul (at time of going to press) achieving Sharpshooter, the highest award from twenty yards. Alex, Libby and Jason Uth also shot convincingly from thirty yards, Jason achieving an impressive 203 and the Sharpshooter award.

Libby Copeland-Halperin and Alex Rikleen achieved the honor of the Effort and Skill award, both putting in great amounts of time and energy towards leading the field this summer. In addition Allie Sneider and Josh Rowe gained the Progress and Achievement award, with Josh showing massive improvement just in time for the tournament.

Thanks to all of you who came to the range this summer, particularly the counselors that allowed themselves to become moving targets for the "floo floos." Your help was greatly appreciated by both your groups and us. ☺

ARTS & CRAFTS - ARTS

2002 was another awesome year for Arts and Crafts here in The Realm. It was my second summer here at Robin Hood and I didn't think it would be possible to have as good a year as 2001, but this summer was even more fantastic!

The "Craft Shack" team worked really hard to turn the whole arts program around this year and bring new and fresh ideas to the activity, and the response we had from everyone was truly amazing. The enthusiasm of every camper was astounding, I really couldn't have wished for a better reaction.

It seemed like some groups were never away – yes, I'm thinking of you Quills! You girls were amazing, I loved every period I had with you – which was a lot! There were other great groups such as the Bows with an extremely enthusiastic Jimena Gastelum, you were so cool Jimena and very popular with all of us at arts and crafts! The Arrows were also a superb group to have this summer at art, especially Alexandra Sanchez – your talent for art seems endless and no doubt you will go far!

Every camper who came to Art this year was so enthusiastic and willing to learn. It's unbelievable that there are so many talented people in just one place! Many thanks to the arts and crafts staff; all of you were so helpful and fun to work with!

And now to my boys – The Archers of 2002, you guys were amazing and the highlight of my summer. You made every single day fun and never dull! You guys were awesome! Thank you so much, Archer staff, I couldn't have gotten through the summer without you. I'd give anything to be in any one of your groups next year. Dick you were a tremendous GL and I feel I've learned so much from you these past 8 weeks, and I have endless respect for your loyalty and devotion to Robin Hood. Congratulations on your 20th year!

To the rest of my friends here at Robin Hood – too many to mention, but I hope you know who you are. Thank you so, so much, you are all truly amazing, and I feel so lucky for knowing each and every one of you. Thanks for making my summer the best it could have possibly been!

Take care everyone, keep in touch and I'll see you all next year! Bye!
- Chris Hurdiss ☺

ARTS & CRAFTS - CRAFTS

JODY TURANO

The summer of 2002—Robin Hood's 75th anniversary—saw a resurgence in our craft department. We renamed the building the "Craft Shack". We added many new projects to the already fine repertoire of ideas which were already standards in camp. The staff was hand picked by John , and contained some of the finest artistic people we have ever seen in "the Shack." Nicola Le Rougetel from England, Meghan Ferrin from Idaho, and Jody Eigner Turano from Colorado.

Sand art was a huge hit! We used approximately 100 pounds of sand and dozens of bottles of glue! We had some beautiful blended rainbow effects created by mixing the colors delicately and applying them in small sections. Hundreds of sand art necklaces and paperweights were also made. The following Yeomen created a lot of these: Harrison Brown, Alex Lynn, Shakeel Pereira, Josh Rowe, Ethan Snider, and Myles Stavis.

Leather craft was brought back to the Realm this summer. Scores of bookmarks, coasters, bracelets and key chains were hand stamped, tooled , and painted. Hemp and embroidery floss bracelets were made by all age groups. We could never keep up with the supply and demand. Many Shires enjoyed these activities including Lauren Brenner, Sarah Potts, Emily Stecher, and Samantha Berschler.

Dream catchers were made by many campers of all age groups. Remember... your dream catcher only works if you take care of it properly! Hang it by your head and keep it clean. If you have a bad dream follow these instructions. Take it down, shake it out, blow out the dusty bad dreams, and repeat three times, then rehang it. Now you should have only good dreams!

Pillows were made by several campers. They learned how to use a needle threader, different stitches etc. Archers Dan Chandler-Klein, Harry Ehrlich, Jordan Gluck, Zack Goldman, Paul Grossman, Gabriel Klein, Nicholas Plater, Zachary Rowe, Jacob Szabo, George Wickey and David Woodstein all started a pillow, and some completed this new skill.

Our biggest, newest, most popular craft was copper enameling. The process of attaining a beautiful piece is quite fun. It's about 1/2 talent/artistic ability, and 1/2 luck the way the glass melts when you place it into the 1500° F. kiln. A copper shape is selected and cleaned. Powdered glass is then applied with a sifter and baked for approximately 3 minutes. The hardest part of the process is waiting for the piece to cool. Different techniques can be used for layering, carving out powdered glass, adding stones and strings of glass etc. Over half of the campers and staff gave this new craft a try and most of them made several pieces. Marilyn Fillion of the Bows worked on copper every day it was possible. She made many exceptional and beautiful pieces. Her perseverance and careful attention to detail brought her the distinguished award of BEST IN CRAFTS FOR THE GIRLS. Other Bows that really enjoyed crafts and came a lot were Jenny Sonenberg, Vicky Senter, Aubrey King, Kimberly Turano, Jill Kozloff, and Sasha Kirsch. Arrows that also created a lot of copper were Michelle Brush, Lily Miesmer, Yssabella Sartori, Carolyn Siegel, and Lauren Tuck.

BEST IN CRAFTS FOR THE BOYS was a tie between Brandon Sneider and Michael Szewczyk. They would always come to the Craft Shack singing "crafts is the very best thing". Their smiling faces and positive attitudes were always a welcome addition. They both had wonderful attitudes about trying new crafts, and they learned quickly. They helped teach others in their group how to weave friendship bracelets. Brandon also helped teach them origami. Other TPJ's that came to crafts a lot and made some wonderful pieces were Gustavo Gastelum, Sam Lee, and Maxim Fillion.

Memory books were created by all Junior campers and were a requested item by the Quills. Campers were asked to add at least a page once a week. Many campers wrote and drew in them much more often. Some ideas that were included were people in their groups, trips they took, inside jokes, funny memories, favorite and least favorite camp foods, their favorite place in camp, favorite counselors, favorite activities, drawing of memorable moments, etc. I hope you will take a look at your memory book after you have read this article and hopefully it will jog your memory. Then you will recall how much fun you had at Robin Hood in the summer of 2002. So, are you ready to come back to camp? I Can't wait to see you all again next summer ! - Jody Eigner Turano ☺

ARTS & CRAFTS - CERAMICS

CHERIE BOYD

2002 was a great summer for the Ceramics program. This was my first year at Camp Robin Hood, and I thoroughly enjoyed working with all the campers that participated in ceramics. I was amazed with the knowledge and talent shown by a large number. Particularly Bows: Estefanie Moreno, Brittany Frye and Marilyn Filion; Quills: Sam Kadis, Shawn McGrievy and Sarah Lindenauer; Arrows: Andreanne Cloutier and Carolyn Siegel and Friar: Andrew Klein. They all created amazing pieces, both on and off the wheel. Such things they made included picture frames, coil pots, molds, mugs, mobiles and tiles. I was particularly impressed with the creativity shown by Sam Kadis while making her piggy bank. Good job, Sam!

Other campers to visit me regularly included TPT's: Brandon Sneider, Gustavo Gastelum, Nicholas Messic, Michael Szewczyk and Aaron Woodstein. TJ's: Katie Davis, Bailey Friedman, Sara Friedman, Valentine Hernandez, Emily Hornblower, Valerie Margolius and Jessica Trcmayne. Squires: Alvaro Llanza, Guillermo Sanchez, Jeremy Slossberg and Alex Weiss. These boys displayed unbelievable patience and skill when creating their figures. Excellent job, boys, you made some amazing stuff.

I would like to thank Jenna Stewart, a Quills counselor, for always helping me with the clean up. Thank you so much for all your efforts. It made my life a lot casier!

Last but certainly not least, I would like to thank Meghan, Chris, Nicola and Jody for all their help and support throughout the summer. Working by myself in ceramics was hard going but having these guys working next to me in Arts & Crafts made things manageable.

Thank you everybody for a successful and enjoyable summer. ☺

ARTS & CRAFTS WOODSHOP

ALEX McARTHUR & ROBERT JONES

The year 2002 brought many fine changes to the Woodshop. Alex McArthur took a leading role in guiding campers in creating their fine projects. Bob Jones was also a new presence who helped many campers to produce the finest of work. Alex has been a presence in the woodshop in the past but this was Bob's first year. Bob was impressed by many fine people that he met at camp.

Among camp's finest woodworkers are the following: awards given to boys include the Effort and Skill award to Nick Chandler-Klein for many projects including a boat for the Green and White competition and the Progress and Achievement award for boys to Benjamin Roberts. He produced fine workmanship throughout the year including a high quality birdhouse.

Sarah Potts helped produce a wonderful Adirondack Chair for Founder's Day. For this she won the award for Effort and Skill for the year 2002. She also made the winning entry of a clock for Green and White.

The award for Progress and Achievement went to Estefanie Moreno for a beautiful bench with hearts on it.

As usual, campers created an endless variety of projects to bring home. In the Tumbler and Jester groups, some of the woodworking included the following: name boards and boxes and peg racks were made by Katie Davis, Sara Friedman, Stephanie Stupack, Jessica Tremayne, and Lauren Zipkin.

An outstanding effort by an Archer was that of Charlie Nathanson who made an excellent box in which to store stuff. Gabe Klein also produced an award-winning ladder for the bunk. Similar efforts were put forth by Andrew Nigro and Jacob Szabo.

The Quills were especially fun to have in the shop this year. Carly Schuster made many projects including a friendship flower with Dana Geldwert. They worked together on many other projects. Shawn McGrievy joined in with the general creativity.

The Arrows put in a tremendous amount of effort and time creating an Adirondack chair for girl's camp. Important contributors were

Lily Meismar, Anna Crane and Zoe Kessler.

Among the finest of the Bards' creative projects of the year were peg racks by Alex Merwin, Tara Sheehan, Ali Goldstein, and Becca Droms.

The Shires made a wonderful contribution to camp with their Adirondack chair. Two important workers on the project were Anna Halperin and Sarah Potts. Throughout the season the group had a fun-filled summer in the woodshop and were always welcome arrivals.

The Yeomen were always a group to look forward to in the shop and would take on any task with enthusiasm. Sam Dicker, Ryan Shane, Miles Stavis, Ethan Sneider, Alex Lynn, and Joshua Rowe created cubbies, sign boards, traps, you name it. They enjoyed designing their projects as well as constructing them.

All in all it was a wonderful year in the woodshop. I looked forward to each and every group of kids as they arrived for their period with me and with Bob. It was helpful for Tom to make the contribution that he did. I look forward to another summer in the woodshop at Camp Robin Hood. ☺

Well, where can I start? It's been a fantastic summer here in the Realm and as always the Waterfront has proved itself to be the best place on camp! So where did it all go, I hear you asking – what did we get up to? Well, right from day one the Lancers gave the best capsizes demonstrations... even if they were somewhat unintended! Memories of Tansey, Zandy, Max and Jesse are strong in my mind as the biggest tippers! Next up were the mighty Tumblers and Jesters who showed great enthusiasm and endless calls to go to the 'Doctor's house' – better known as the Chalet.

The camping trips over to Danforth Bay were always good fun and an adventure for everyone. Do we all remember how to get there? Drew knows the way... past the marina, through the channel, under the bridge! Then there were the wonderful Bows who were as good as gold and listened to my every word. We all had fun when we went out for lunch up the channel and saw all the wildlife.

One memorable canoe trip was the Saxons and Scribes trip to the Sand Bar to play volleyball. We got there after a ridiculously long time and then played about 3 minutes of volleyball before the Scribes announced they were cold and wanted to paddle back. We started on our way, after a detour to the marina, and were lucky enough to get a tow back from some kind people in a ski boat. Imagine a train of boats six canoes long! Crazy stuff!

No doubt the Foresters will be wondering what I saw up the channel – well, guess what, I saw a turtle yesterday! It was wild, man! And then there were the lovely Shires who always enjoyed coming down and going for a paddle... and a capsize or two – Lindsey and Julia! Happy times!

Overall I've had an amazing time this summer and really felt part of something special. My thanks go out to the Trips Staff – Drew, Heather and Jane who helped me throughout the summer. And most of all thanks to the kids who worked so hard. Who knows I might be back next year... - Simon Theobalds ☺☺

KRISTINA LAMBERT

Dance was a little different this summer. New things were introduced to the Realm. The Talent Show was my one and only big project of the summer. The Tumblers and Jesters danced to Zoolander. Everyone danced beautifully. Maddie Josel, Lauren Zipkin, Sara Friedman, Katie Davis did their own part of the show. The Jesters kept up their smiles even when the music stopped midway through the dance. GREAT JOB!! Bows choreographed their own dance and did a wonderful job. Kim Turano and Jenny Sonenberg had a small duet. AWESOME LADIES!!

Missy Friedman and Nikole Casimir made up the whole dance all by themselves. The song was AM/PM and I think they might have stayed up that long to make it perfect. YEAH QUILLS!

The Arrows were choreographed by Zoe Kessler. She taught a dance different from anything done in the whole show and there was no music. WAY TO GO GIRLS! The Bards took camp back a decade to the 90's with Vanilla Ice. Ice Ice Baby was humorous and done extremely well. YOU GIRLS WERE AS COOL AS ICE!! The Shires were too hot to handle. Lauren Brenner taught the girls to dance hot! Not that they didn't already know how to be. It definitely got hot after that dance. They wore white shirts, but should have worn RED!! The Scribes love rock and roll. The Saxons joined them onstage for their last show as campers. It was put together quickly, but was performed well. YA'LL WERE GORGEOUS!!

When I started teaching Belly Dancing, I wasn't sure how the campers would feel about it, but they enjoyed it for the most part.

Estefanie Moreno, Daniele and Gaby Jacobson, Carolyn Siegel, Dayna Geldwert, Ilyse Rikleen, Angie DiLorenzo, Amanda Tuck, Vicki Senter, Dana Berschler, Kim Turano, Allison Howard excelled at Belly Dance. They tried and took it seriously. This summer was interesting for me as this was my first one at Robin Hood. I appreciate how welcome all the campers made me feel. I know that it was a transition between teachers this summer. So I would like to thank the staff for making it a smooth one. I would like to give special thanks to Michael Guiou (for all of the love and support), Mara Weinstein (for all of the help and pointers), OHANA (Ya'll kept me going on a daily basis and I will always love you for it!) GREAT BIG THANKS TO ALL OF THE CAMPERS FOR JUST BEING AWESOME!! ☺

Once upon a time, many months ago, Stephen Duckham, a rather perplexed drama director sat in his home on a distant isle called Great Britain far, far away from the Realm. He pondered on what the ensuing months at Camp Robin Hood would bring and who would be sharing in the hopefully happy adventures of the summer's productions with him. He wished so hard for the summer to be a good one that the Fairy Godmother of the Theater looked down and granted his wish. Any uneasiness or fears were instantly dispelled when, on arrival at Camp, he met his two young and enthusiastic assistants for the season - Michael Guiou and Caroline Carter.

Soon, the three musketeers of show business were hard at work planning the program. First to take the stage was the annual Talent Show. This comprised of numerous acts ranging from dancers from nearly every group; lip-syncers by the dozen; bands; solo musicians, gymnasts and comedy acts. The whole evening was held together by two witty and urbane hosts - Adam Stone and Eli Fuchsberg. The wide variety of acts were enthusiastically received by the entire camp and proved a great start to the drama season.

Spurred along by this entertaining evening our intrepid trio set to work on the main show - 'GUYS AND DOLLS'. This award winning Broadway musical would be one of the hardest to reproduce at the Robin Hood Playhouse, with its cast of New York Gamblers, Nightclub Dancers and members of the Salvation Army. The cast was quickly assembled and it soon became apparent at rehearsals that talented players would soon be giving the performances of their lives. Everyone gave of their best splendidly led by Caroline, Michael, Nick and Angie. In tribute to the entire cast, their names now appear in full at right.

The first of two performances was seen by the Townsfolk of nearby Freedom followed the next evening by the whole camp and parents. The accolades poured on the cast kept everyone in high spirits and eagerly anticipating news of the next show.

Many thoughts were tossed around until finally the idea of doing A TRIBUTE TO NEW YORK was unanimously agreed upon. This would take the form of Broadway show songs, Jazz influences from the US and South America and personal reminiscences. Those taking part were - Michael Guiou, Caroline Carter, Kristina Lambert, Nick Chandler-Klein, Kevin Margolius, David Gershenson, Meghan Ferrin, Emily Matthews, Damien Speranza, Dick Roberts, Jason Uth, JC Gough, Andrew Senter, Andrew Klein, Kailey Hutchison, Rosemary Stramka, John Szewczyk, Bob Jones, Adam Stone and a guest appearance by John Klein. A truly talented gathering of campers and staff made this a memorable and emotional evening and a fitting end to what many were calling the best drama season for many years.

Completely contented with how the year had gone, the British drama director departed for his home across the ocean once again thanking the Fairy Godmother of Theater for a wonderfully happy year and wondering if by any chance that his wish may be granted again next year. ☺

FIELD HOCKEY

BECCA NEWSHOLME

My summer started off not quite as I expected with me doing the backbreaking job of painting the lines on the soccer and hockey fields! My not so great DIY skills were then tested again when I had to repair all the sticks which had obviously received a battering the year before!

The groups I taught for field hockey were the Tumblers and Jesters, the Bows, the Quills, the Arrows, the Bards and the Archers. I was quite surprised by how few people had played before, but I soon realized that field hockey was not such a big deal in America as it is in England. Nevertheless all the groups were very inquisitive and eager to learn. Lily Miesmer in the Arrows and Marleigh Higgins of the Quills were very keen players and learnt quickly. I heard that Laila Ameri of the Bards had been practicing in her rest hours and this impressed me greatly!

Although I only taught each group for a couple of sessions each, it was great to see them develop pushing, hitting, dribbling and shooting skills. I was especially pleased with how well the Archers picked up the new skills. I think they realized that field hockey is not just a girls' sport!

Everyone enjoyed playing the 'stick game' and 'steal the bacon'. The Tumblers and Jesters learnt why I instructed them not to do a golf swing in field hockey, because if you get hit, it hurts!

Thanks to everyone for a great summer! Take Care... Becks ☺

GYMNASTICS

NICOLA LeROUGETEL & KRISTINA LAMBERT

Despite the gymnastics dome being totally blown away in the night's storm, classes went like a breeze from day one. I was so impressed by all you guys who came – your ability as well as enthusiasm, it was a pleasure teaching you. It is always great to see improvement and to watch you grasp new moves.

This summer many of you tried back flips for the first time and a special congratulations must go out to Kim Tirano and Bailey Friedman who, both having never tried one in their lives, could, after one hour complete them unsupported! Others like Missy Freedman, Emily Labes, Angie DiLorenzo and Sarah Lindenauer continued to improve theirs throughout the weeks with such determination – top effort girls! I also want to congratulate Gaby on her stunningly elegant floor routine and overcoming the "I caaannn't" syndrome – YOU CAN!!!

The boys gymnastics, too, was quite something to witness – do any of you have a sense of fear?! I have to say I was particularly impressed with the skills and energy that came from Andrew (arch), Ethan Snieder, Matt Rosen, Myles Stavis and Josh Rowe who just wouldn't stop! A special mention to Nick also, who, from speed, agility and balance holds the record time for the obstacle course. Introduced again this year was Acrobalance, which some partners like Woody Sr. and Jordan were made for, even inventing their own, very special move "The walking Y"!

As for remember whens... there is only one which sticks out in my mind – The handstand – de-pantsing episode – I'm so sorry Rebecca!!

I want to thank everyone who came to gym, and especially Kristina and John Sez, my co-workers for just being so awesome. Hope to see you all in years to come, take care for now, - Love Nicola ☺

AWARDS

Effort and Skill: Missy Friedman & Angie DiLorenzo
Progress and Achievement: Bailey Friedman

The lacrosse season at the Realm this summer comes to an end, and it is hard to believe that when we started we were hand painting the field with much appreciated help from the Saxons. When the campers arrived they must have wondered what they had let themselves in for with a Scot and an Aussie coaching them, but there was definitely a keen interest in the game right from the start.

In junior camp there was great attendance by all groups, boys and girls. Thank you to everyone in JC for making it so much fun to start you off in the game. Our games of 'Bunny eggs' seemed to set the tone for these practices.

Senior camp was a pleasure to coach, with some talented players in all groups. The Shires and Saxons were amazing, so thank you. Now for the Lancers - wow what a fantastic group! We had them more sessions than anyone else and a lot of these brave boys were first picked to play in our U16 match against Camp Cody. This could have something do with their GL Rick Lowe (lacrosse super star)-Thanks.

The U13 boys had a great game against Winaukee and although they went down 9-0 they showed a lot of determination, which was measured in penalties in the case of Frumkin and Tansey. They also looked the part in all their new men's gear which we received this season. Special thanks to John for all his help with that.

Then came our U16 boys and U15 girls games against Camp Cody. In the boys match it looked like the Saxons were playing our TPJ's. Ethen Liebermann scored a hatrick helping us to our 7-3 victory. I would like to thank Rick, Davis, Dicker and Brad for all their help and for umpiring like pro's. The girls game was closer but still provided us with a 6-5 win. It was a solid game that was a pleasure to watch with everyone giving 110%.

We have kind of thanked a lot of people, but you all deserve it for making our lacrosse season here so great. Thanks also goes to the counselors who joined in or at least tried to. And a huge thanks to whoever told us about 'Steal-the-Bacon', it saved us. Well 'til next year boys and girls, 'take it easy' and we will see you in a 'wee bit'. Cara and Dustin ☺

GREEN & WHITE SONGS - WHITE

ANGEL IN THE CENTERFOLD

White's been strong,
Since we've begun,
The war is now complete
On Day One Beetle and Double B
picked the White bean
The White were fierce like warriors,
The Green team knew their fate
The thought of what this war would bring could only cause them pain

Five days gone by
The Judges are amazed with the White team
Here's a tip,
We like our steaks thick, rare and lean

Green blood runs cold,
Bear hides are skinned and sold – Pause
This is a joke, you're getting old

Green blood runs cold,
Bear hides are skinned and sold – Pause
This is a joke, you're getting old

Both our captains,
Losing hair,
But don't they make a great pair
Brandon's shy, some would say
But caught the brass' eye
Green was shaking in their shoes,
When Beetle flashed his baby blues
Something had a hold on us,
When Brandon yelled, "Get on the bus!"

Five days past,
The warriors became too hot to touch.
See us in our negligees...
Hold on, that's just too much!

Green blood runs cold,,
Bear hides are skinned and sold (PAUSE)
If this was poker you should fold

Green blood runs cold,
Bear hides are skinned and sold (PAUSE)
If this was poker you should fold

RICH GIRL

Chorus:
Listen up Green
You've fought real hard, but you know it don't matter anyway
We got Double and you know he's money,
Look at this war, Green you just look funny
We have Beetle, he's a rock star
Pascal, burgers taste good anyway
Alicia is stunning, but it don't get you too far,
Get you too far...

Judges know
We know you know,
That we're strong
Color war is a breeze
Warriors... standing tall,
We gave our all, and the Greed did fall,
How could you have the gall?

Chorus
High and dry at the flag pole,
Every evening, walked in with your heads hung down
But the White heart was so strong,
We had so much to give
And the Warrior lives for the thrill of it all

Now we're here Green,
And we're face to face,
and there's no place to run anymore
It's song night and you still look funny
You thought you were bears,
but you're really just bunnies
So, Dick Sir, this has gone too far,
We know we have steaks in store.

White team is money and we had such a good time
White team is money and we had such a good time
White team in money and we had such a good time
Such a good time...

BLACK AND WHITE

The beans were picked – Pause
early morning Monday,
With every group the White shot up and away.
We don't need no miracles,
cause Warriors were born to fight.
Judges there's no maybe – Pause
the White team is dynamite

We sent our message fighting under the sun.
And in the water, White was second to none.
And even in the spelling be,
V-I-C-T-O-R-Y
And in this war of colors,
don't you wish that you were on the White

We ain't scared of no Green
We ain't scared of no Green
We ain't scared of no Green
Oh, when the going gets tough

We ain't scared of Pappy
We ain't scared of Felish
We ain't scared of Grizzlies
Oh, the White team plays rough

There's one winner in this war and this year it's gonna be the White.
Don't bring it into the bunk,
it don't matter if you're Green or White.
So let's sing the goodnight song,
it's all over for the Green tonight.

Heaven

Oh, thinking about our childhoods
There's only one place to be
A place where we feel free

And nothing can take us away from here
We can't wait for those 8 weeks
They are magical
We keep coming back for more

Chorus:
Camp is all that we want
Through those long ten winter months
We finally believe
We're in heaven
These friendships are all that we need
We've found them here in the Realm
It isn't too hard to see
It's our haven

We live in Andy's creation
A place filled with love,
That picks you up when you're feeling down
Time can't change what camp means to me
Our hearts will be here, throughout our lives
Our love for camp won't die

Chorus
And John, you took this dream
And kept it alive
The magic has stayed strong

Camp friends will pull us through
The good times and the pain
Yeah, if Andy only know...

Chorus
Camp is all that we want
Camp is all that we need

GREEN AND WHITE 2002

GREEN & WHITE SONGS - GREEN

I'VE GOT MY MIND SET ON YOU

We came here to sing tonight
To tell how we won this fight
You've seen that we clawed the white
So, let's get this story right

Chorus:
Five long days ago
When we picked the bean
We saw a winning team
It was the grizzly green

Interlude:
(Guys) We want it, we want it
(Girls) We did it, we did it
(All) We'll win it, we'll win it. . . Tonight!

We started off on the field
We made it clear bears don't yield
And when it came time to swim
The warriors could not win

Bridge:
Alicia protected the cubs
Pascal defended the cave
Providing us with strength and love
These grizzlies became the fave

Our Papa and Mama bear
Got Beeile and Brandon scared
Our growl is loved and fierce
Through their pride our claws did pierce

Chorus

Interlude

Judges you have heard enough
These Grizzlies are brave and tough
And now we must end this tale
Of the team that would not fail

Mona Lisa

(Staff)

And now I know
Magic in the trees are not just pretty words we say

(Triars/Bards and Up)
I thought I knew
But now I know
These words are feelings that we all share inside

(All)
Now we've seen Andy's vision had come true
He's at the heart
Tradition through and through

Now thank you John, there's people out there like you
Thank you John for making this dream come true

Chorus:

(Girls) We came as Jesters, left as sisters
(Boys) We came as Squires, left as brothers
(All)

Look around we see the family we've become
Some may ask us why
But we all know inside
Our love for Robin Hood will never die

(Staff)

Summer ends
We think about the days gone by
Knowing that our hearts will long reside
(All)

Some day I'll go alone
Grown on my own,
but my seeds shall be sown in Robin Hood

Our summer home
Forever we are bound

We stand as one, our voices strong and sound
And thank you John, for the people we have found
We thank you John, for the family we have found

Chorus

I THINK WE'RE ALONE NOW

White Team Beware
That's what they say when greens together
The five days begin
Grizzly's attack made their heads spin

Running just fast as they can Trip and fall white just can't stand
Grizzlies dig their claws into white
And we put paws around them
And they stumble to the ground and then we say

Just look at our Green Team
AP and Felish are the best around
Just look at this dream team
Grizzlies are fo shizzie
Let's go to town

Repeat Chorus

Grizzlies are hot
That's what they say when greens together
We rack up the score
White goes limp from our fierce roar

I WANT YOU BACK

When we all began this war
Five long days ago
We waited for the jelly beans
To see where we would go

But then this gallant team was formed
And that was all it took
To know deep down within our hearts
Didn't need a second look

Chorus:

Oh, judges, hold on to your hats
Show you how we do it
1,2,3,4,5 days we've worked hard

Now we are singin' victory songs victory songs
The Great Green team is mo-v-in on We're movin' on toward our triumph
The Great Green team victory's near now
The Great Green team is the best team

A green team victory has been
Our dream and destiny
White team's just been livin' in fantasy

White has tried their hardest
But their efforts weren't enough
This mean Green team just can't be beat
No, we are just too tough

Chorus

OLD TIME ROCK AND ROLL

Let's get these Grizzly bears up out of the cave
It's time to rock and it's not time to behave
This is the team with all the heart and the soul
Let's chow the white team right back into their hole

Don't try to tell us we can't hand with the white
This is our war and we will take it tonight
These bears are here and we are on the attack
We're on the prowl and we'll never look back

Chorus:

We are the grizzlies and our growl is loud
We make our mama and papa bear proud
We're on our hind legs and we're ready to roar
There ain't no stopping, we are winning this war

You see these bears and you know something is brewin'
Tomorrow night those juicy steaks we'll be chewin'
We beat the warr-l-ors out right from the start
Judges you see that they just can't match our heart

Chorus

Chorus

INTERCAMP ATHLETICS - BASEBALL & SOFTBALL

The number 14 has been my lucky number since I first wore it as a five year old on the Lancaster Pirates baseball team. So it didn't surprise me that in this my 14th year at Robin Hood I was very lucky in so many ways. First and foremost were the two outstanding assistants I was given to aid me in running the programs. Shawn Salamon and Bob Jones were like gifts from above. Shawn, a twenty year old student at Quinnipiac University was a talented player and possessed teaching skills far beyond what one might expect from a 20 year old. Bob Jones, a septuagenarian with over fifty years of coaching and playing experience was invaluable in working with our pitchers in particular. In a summer in which I faced some very challenging physical hurdles, these two alone would have made the season's tasks easier. But I was also lucky to have so many other staff members who pitched in to make this a memorable and highly successful summer.

Bob McKenna and a strong group of Saxons led by Jason Dobry, J.C. Gough and Ethan Lieberman helped ready the fields so they were playable as early as they have ever been. They continued throughout the summer to offer support in maintaining the fields and keeping them in tiptop shape.

As always much thanks goes out to those staff members who volunteered to officiate games and assist in coaching, be it at play days or tournaments. The list is long but their contributions so greatly appreciated I would be remiss not to mention them, so kudos to: Beetle Bailey, Brandon Barnett, James Brenner, Jesse Brush, Starla Cogburn, Steven Davis, David Dickerman, Jason Fisher, Lauren Frank, Kristina Futterman, Jenny Katz, Julia Kidder, Rick Lowe, David Margoliuss, Eric Martz, Alicia Meltzer, Jon Meltzer, Andy Pascal, Jon Posen, Ethan Rothstein, Damien Speranza and Michael Stecher. Contributions were also made in this area by visiting alumni including, Matt Cohen, Matt Bronson and Brian Snyder.

The season was highlighted by some great individual as well as team performances. The 13 and under girls softball team successfully defended their crown in the second annual RH Tournament. In what was one of the finest comebacks I have ever witnessed they defeated a strong Birchmont team 6-5. After losing to Birchmont early in the round robin portion of the tournament, they battled back to face Birchmont in the finals. Trailing 4-1 in the top of the fourth with two down and nobody on, Annie Crane began a five run rally with a double. Singles by Allie Sneider, Sarah Szweczyk and Lauren Tuck tied the game. Kelsey Sheehan then delivered the biggest hit of the game, a double that scored two runs to give the girls a lead they would not relinquish. Things got tight in the sixth but a nifty double play pulled off by Annie Crane and Sarah Szweczyk snuffed out the Braves attempt at a comeback, and the girls from the Hood celebrated joyfully in front of the grandstand. Many members of that team also went out to Evergreen, and for the first time ever, won the prestigious 15 and under Evergreen Tourney. They were joined in that quest by Bards and Shires, Sam Berschler, Lizzy Kidder, Libby Copeland -Halperin, Anna Halperin, Marla Madan and Emily Stecher. Both teams were coached by Shawn Salaman and Julia Kidder.

The highlights of the baseball season came from two young pitchers. Twelve year old Zach Frumkin hurled a six inning one hitter versus Cody in which he struck out 15 batters in a 3-1 victory, and eleven year old Gabe Klein spun a six inning no-hitter against a stunned Birchmont Braves team in a 10-0 win.

Shawn Salamon and Craig Rudikoff stopped Andy Pascal and Andrew Klein from defending their Home Run Derby title defeating them 13-8 in the finals of the always-popular event.

Award winners this season included Rookie of the Year honors for Lindsay Rosenstein, Jake Schwartz and Zach Frumkin. Most improved players were Ben Jelin and Anna Wiggin. BIC awards went to Matt Brody and Libby Copeland Halperin and the Coaches award winners were Mike Rubin and Annie Crane.

I want to thank Chuck Illig, Michelle Brockman, Peter Corbin, Freaky and of course Joan and John Klein without whom none of this would have been possible. It was a great summer, and I look forward to my fifteenth season next summer when I will once again be able to gleefully proclaim PLAY BALL !!!! - John Szweczyk, RH Director of Baseball and Softball Operations. ☺

INTERCAMP ATHLETICS - BASKETBALL

Another season is done here at the Realm, and with the end of the summer we look back at the accomplishments of the campers at Robin Hood. The basketball courts were full of those accomplishments. From the 15 and under boys team to the 13 and under girls team, and from the Bard/Shires to the PJs, the courts were alive with enthusiasm and determination. The coaching abilities of the b-ball staff, Damien, Starla, and Keely helped to make the summer both productive and fun for all of the groups who regularly attended. We also received help from a few Saxons such as PJ, Stephenson, Trucker, and Rudy.

During the periods we worked on all sorts of drills from full court lay-ups to rebounding to passing and shooting progressions. The staff could always count on hard work from the campers, especially Tara and Becca, Lindsay Rosenstein, Sarah Szewczyk, Dana Berschler, Lizzie Kidder, and the entire Shire crew who had some intense 3 on 3. On the boys camp side we also got a lot of hard work from campers such as James Newmyer, Jordan Gluck, Jack Freifelder, Sam Jonas, Jack Friedman, Zandy Bard, Frumps, AC and the whole Friar group, many of whom played 15 and under; Brody, Crane, Jelin, Yoni, Margo, and of course those Saxons. If the intensity level was high on the courts during periods then the intensity at the tournaments was off the charts. We had strong play from all of the different age groups, and here is a closer look at some of their seasons in intercamp competition.

15 and Under Boys This summer was a good one for the boys 15 and under team. After the loss of some key players from last summer, the team was looking for new leaders, and we found them in Matt Brody, Mark Crane and Ben Jelin, who stepped up to take charge. Those three did a great job setting examples for the other players, but it also helped that we had a great supporting cast in Yoni, A Margo, Jason Uth, Matt Szabo, Senter and Zandy Bard. This year's team was all about having fun while playing whether winning or losing and they played tough, unified ball. They worked hard even when asked to give it their all at six a.m. practices. DEFENSE WHAT!!!

15 and Under Girls This summer's 15 and under girls team had a solid returning group, and we expected a lot from them from the start. If you ask around they did not let us down. These girls had an incredible "never say die" attitude. This attitude showed at one game in particular. It was our home tournament and we were in the semi finals. The girls were down nine with two minutes to go. It would have been easy to accept defeat, but these girls showed they were not ready to quit. With amazing hustle and solid defense the lead was cut to four with one minute left. With great play from Marla Madden, Lindsay Golden, and Libby Copeland-Halperin the girls put themselves within striking distance. In the last minute Sam Berschler took the team on her back and scored the teams next eight points to give our girls the win. The game will not be soon forgotten.

13 and Under Boys This group was a lot of fun to work with on and off the court. Their best qualities were their intensity and heart. They had outstanding skill to match their determination with the solid play of Moose, Katz, Frumps, Blaustein, Gaynor, Grossman, and, of course, our top scorer Zandy. Highlights of the season include a couple of second place finishes in tournaments including the Robin Hood tournament.

13 and Under Girls The 13 and under girls team got off to a quick start. After just two practices the 19 girls were split into a green and a white team. In their first and only tournament, which was hosted by Robin Hood, the Green team fought its way to a second place finish behind Arrows Annie Crane, Makenzie Davis, and Sarah Robinson as well as tenacious play by the lone Quill Anna Wiggin.

12, 11, 10 and Under Tournaments Archers such as Andrew Nigro, Jack Freifelder, Jordan Gluck, and Yeomen Sam Jonas, Roger and Alex Gesswein, Michael Fribourg, Myles Stavis, and Jack Friedman led the younger guys to a couple of third place victories at Indian Acres and Winaukee. Overall the age group has amazing talent and we are expecting great play from them in the coming summers.

It was an amazing summer for basketball, and we are looking forward to another successful season of activity periods and intercamp next summer; see you then. ☺

INTERCAMP ATHLETICS - SOCCER

The summer of '02 was filled with games of head-catch and World Cup, with a few technical training sessions thrown in. The head-catch games were filled with kids falling on their backsides or being hit in the face with the ball while trying to decide whether to head it or catch it. World Cup was a favorite among the kids, who came running to their session everyday with shouts of "Can we play World Cup today?" followed by who they wanted their partner to be and what country they would represent. The campers were usually rewarded for their efforts during technical training with this game at the end of the session.

During the first four weeks there was a weekend of Intensive Training which consisted of three practice sessions for campers interested in more serious training. These sessions included drills fine-tuning the campers' skills in areas such as shooting, goalkeeping, dribbling, and passing. These sessions also included very intensive scrimmages that had the soccer staff working just as hard as the campers.

The next big event that came around for soccer was Parents Weekend, when we played a few games of head-catch that could probably be put in to The Guinness Book of World Records, for the sheer number of participants; if there was such a category. The scrimmages during this weekend also exceeded the number of people on the field during your typical 11 vs. 11 game. But all in all the campers enjoyed showing their parents how hard they had been working all summer.

Then came the games of Green and White, and following the trend of almost every other activity, White dominated the majority of the soccer matches with the exception of the staff games, where Green swept. This was due in most part to the lack of European staff on the White.

10 & Under Girls In an entire summer filled with hard work, unfortunately these girls were only able to play one intercamp match against Robindale. The team played a tough game and displayed good sportsmanship and tenacity, but failed to bring home the win. The team was led by Bailey Friedman, Carly Rosenfield, Kate Davis, and Lily Stavis.

11 & Under Girls These girls played four amazing games in a tournament here at Robin Hood. There was a mixture of nine, ten and eleven year olds playing and they proved to be great soccer players in the intense heat. They won the first game 5-0 against a team with nine players. These girls being good sportsman decided to take off two of our players to even the match. Some great goals were scored, of which Eliza Stout and Amanda Tuck (who received the Effort and Skill award for junior camp female) played well. In the second game they lost 2-0 to a strong opposition, but Rebecca Coven in goal played extremely well. In the semi's the score was 1-1 after extra time. An enthralling penalty shootout then took place to decide the final. After going through every member of the team including goalies, we missed the finals by one goal. Sarah Lindenhauer finished the day with a hat trick. Lindsay Rosenstein, Ali Sartori and Jill Kozloff also had a great tournament.

12 & Under Girls These girls started off the summer by playing a match against Huckins. The girls brought home a 1-1 tie. Marleigh Higgins scored the one goal for Robin Hood and was assisted by Sarah Lindenhauer. Anna Wiggins played a supreme half in goal, and was helped by Liza Rosenfield on defense, who also received the Progress and Achievement award for female soccer.

15 & Under Girls After having very few practice sessions as a team these girls came together and pulled out a 1-1 record at a tournament at Robindale. The first game was a disappointing 0-2 loss to WYCO. The second game was an exciting 3-2 victory with Molly Herlihy scoring all 3 goals. Marla Madan played extremely well earning herself the senior girls camp Effort and Skill award. Allie Sneider played a tremendous tournament on defense. Alex Merwin also had a great tournament.

10 & Under Boys This group consisted of the TPJ's, Squires, and some Archers; and even though between these 3 groups they came to soccer at least once a day, they only participated in one tournament at Winaukee. The boys played in three games and showed good effort and spirit throughout the day. Bruno Gastelum and Ryan Globus both scored goals. Juan Pablo Pedre and Mikey Szweczyk did a great job controlling the mid field, and Aaron Haynes did a superb job in the goal as well as on the field.

13 & Under Boys This team had a season of mixed fortunes. Their first tournament was here at Robin Hood and they displayed a good deal of confidence. After losing the first game to West End, they battled back in the second game and won 3-1 with goals by Matt Rosen and Jacob Cohen. Moving on to the quarter finals we played West End again and had a much better showing but ended up losing 0-1. In their second tournament Robin Hood reached the semi-finals where they played a dramatic game against Winaukee ending in a 2-2 tie. Josh Berman scored both goals linking well with his brother Andy. The game was then decided by penalties where Robin Hood lost 3-2. John Solomon came up with some remarkable saves in goal while Daniel Grossman played extremely solid defense and Ethan Sneider continually gave 100% in midfield.

15 & Under Boys This team showed a great deal of potential, however, coming up against much stronger teams physically proved to be our downfall. Mark Crane was a definite power in the center of the field. Matt Szabo and Tyler Goldman caused trouble for the other team's defenders with their speed up front, earning Goldman senior boys camp Effort and Skill award. Jason Uth and Brad Shane proved to be a powerful defensive unit, with Uth's leadership and determination showing through in every game, getting Uth the boys camp Progress and Achievement Award. ☺

Returning to Robin Hood for our 10th year, we are again impressed with the wonderful young people of Robin Hood. It has been a great pleasure to work with the campers and we extend our congratulations to their parents, who obviously do a very good job.

It has been a summer when many campers have produced exceptional quality work. Again, we congratulate the four award winners; PJ Michael Szewczyk and Shire Julia Helman, who won the awards for effort and skill; and Tumbler/Jester Heather Rowe and Shire Anna Halperin who won awards for progress and achievement.

Heather Rowe led the entire camp in darkroom attendance. She attended many classes and nearly every rest hour all season long. She made approximately 50 photograms, many of which showed good imagination. Another Tumbler/Jester who came in many rest hours was Katie Kruse. Both Heather and Katie made photograms that were honored as "photograms of the week" on the department bulletin board, and Katie made two for the front door, which informed the world that Liz and Dick's photo department could be found within. One of Katie's prints, of a horse and Valentina Hernandez, was a photo of the week, as was Valentina's picture of a group of six campers.

Other Tumbler/Jesters who attended frequently and did good work were Michaela Fooska, Daniele Jacobson, Maddie Josel, Pricila Pedre, Alison Schwartz and Jessica Tremayne.

In the Bows, Sasha Kirsch produced a very fine print of Peter's dog Kaymo and Jill Kozloff made an equally fine horse portrait. Both prints were displayed on the photography bulletin board. More good printing came from Marilyn Filion, Brittany Frye, Aubrey King, Lindsay Rosenstein, Alexandra Sartori and Victoria Senter.

The largest group in camp was the Quills, and this group had the most campers attending photography. The girls took lots of pictures, processed film, and made many prints and photograms. Most frequent attendees were Christina Ayala, Olivia Firstenberg, Sarah Jedla, Samantha Kadis, Ilyse Rikleen, Lauren Rosenstein and Eliza Stout. Other campers who produced exceptional work for the bulletin board included Arrows Emily Rempell and Nikki Ferland. Emily made a striking flag photogram, and Nikki produced a smiley face print and a delightful portrait of two small campers. Other Arrows who did good work were Elizabeth Atkins, Carolyn Siegel, Elizabeth Sonenberg and Elisabeth Springer.

The Bards had three campers who got prints displayed on the bulletin board: Laila Ameri, Alexandra Goldstein and Mandy McTyre. Laila produced a very creative picture of a splashing wave at close range. She made the wave splash with one hand and took the picture with the camera in the other hand. Not an easy thing to do! Try it! Alexandra has an eye for pattern shots and made an outstanding picture of water-skiing life vests hanging on a line to dry. Mandy delighted us with a picture of the contents of a trashcan. Doesn't sound too appealing, but this trashcan was filled mostly with soda pop cans. This shows that nearly any subject works if the camera is in the right hands. Other Bards who did good work were Andrea Barsk, Rebecca Droms and Elyse Krumholz.

Julia Helman of the Shires won her award by working closely with her friends. She got a picture of seven of them jumping into the air simultaneously. This was typical of the 2002 Shires, who were an efficient and competent working group in the darkroom. Nearly every member of the group attended photo frequently, and nearly every member acquired a high level of skill. Lindsay Golden of the Shires produced a striking and beautiful picture of a girl on the beach. Sarah Potts made a great group picture of six of her friends. These three Shires all had their pictures displayed on the bulletin board. Anna Halperin was rather new to darkroom work but she learned very fast and won the Senior Camp award for Progress and Achievement. Others who deserve mention include Samantha Berschler, Lauren Brenner, Libby Copeland-Halperin and Emily Stecher.

The boys groups produced some very good photographs and darkroom technicians. Some boys attended during rest hours and Green and White darkroom hours rather than scheduled class periods.

PJ Michael Szewczyk attended frequently, worked hard, asked a lot of good questions and produced many fine prints with very little supervision. He even assisted beginning students. For his fine work, he won the Junior Camp award for skill and effort. Other PJs who made good prints and photograms were Sam Lee, Brandon Sneider and Adam Szewczyk.

Archer David Woodstein produced a picture of the horse stables that was displayed on the bulletin board. During Green and White, Woody did a lot of work for the Green Team. He processed film, printed pictures, made photograms and selected the best team prints, which helped his team produce a tie with the White Team in photography points. Archer George Wickey also helped the Green Team by taking pictures, processing film and making prints. Other Archers who attended photo class several times were Ryan Cristal, Jack Freifelder, Jordan Gluck, Paul Grossman, Charles Nathanson and Zachary Rowe.

Lancers Harry Raymond and Stephen Solomon attended darkroom sessions very frequently and produced very fine results. Harry's picture of "Rick Lowe and Friend" was hung on the bulletin board as a very good example of fine portraiture. Stephen contributed many fine pictures to his team in the Green and White competition. Friar Matthew Szabo also participated during Green and White and produced good prints.

The Green and White photo competition got off to a late start, but turned out some credible pictures in the end. A reminder to 2003 campers: the photo competition is worth 25 points and could turn the tables in a very close competition. Therefore, get plenty of practice before Green and White in taking good pictures in five categories: action, portrait, group, landscape and novelty. Then learn to process and print efficiently. We know we have not mentioned all the exceptional prints that were made this summer. Traffic was so heavy in the darkroom near the end of the season that many fine prints were whisked out of the darkroom, onto the drying lines and into the bunks before we had time to borrow them for the bulletin board display.

All in all, 169 out of 276 campers passed through the darkroom doors this season, during classes, rest periods and Green and White competition. Most of them came very frequently in order to improve their photographic skills. It was our pleasure to greet them, teach them and watch them grow in their proficiency. We congratulate all of them on their fine achievements. ☺

- Dick & Liz Knight

JUNE 20th, and 11 equines of all sizes entered the Sherwood Forest Stables. These horses were not only our mounts for the summer, but also our companions that we quickly grew to love & respect. - Back for yet another summer, the reliable & trustworthy CHUCK; forever the favorite SPECTRUM & the slower but "know-it-all" EMMA. Also returning was BUDDY, constantly on the injured list but still so handsome; SHORTY, quite the opinionated one but oh so cute, & PETE, the gentle giant who really knows his stuff. New to the yard was SLIM, rightly named by nature & such a sweetheart; CORA, "Madam Cora", with her "Arab-like" gaits & fine jumping skills; ASIA, the apprehensive "pretty boy", BANDIT, the baby of the yard and soooo cute, not to forget the only brown & white horse at RH. And finally, let us not forget Lincoln's sister, dear little TWINKLE, keeping up family appearances. - The barn staff, consisting of DD, Julie, Karen, Shaun, Sophie & myself, completed the RH Barn Crew of 2002.

The summer was as busy as ever, with many riders & never enough hours in the day. You were all so keen & enthusiastic to spend as much time as possible with your four-legged friends, that there was never a quiet moment at the stables. No horse went ungroomed or unpampered. It is so great to see you all share our passion for equestrian sports & we thank all of you who helped out with the care of our RH horses, in any capacity: from grooming to feeding, sweeping the yard to bathing horses. You were a great help & we are extremely appreciative. We encourage you to keep up your enthusiasm & dedication, for your horse will appreciate it more than anyone!

During lessons we could not be prouder of you all for everyone progressed in their level of riding and demonstrated fine skills in horsemanship. Some of you were sitting on a horse for the first time, not that we'd ever had guessed as you were such naturals... Many of you were picking up from where you left off last summer, and after a few brush up lessons, getting to know your new steeds, you progressed so fast it was as if you'd been riding all year. Some of you had been riding all year and you came to camp demonstrating new & improved skills in horsemanship & were still eager to learn more. Everyone did us proud, showing that riding can be enjoyed at many levels and is a sport that stands out from every other because of one key element - the supreme partnership that exists between rider & horse. Good riders must apply themselves, both physically & mentally, to a never-ending task of learning. Every horse you ride is an individual & will teach you something new. Our RH horses are no exception. We watched as each of you increased your confidence & knowledge & developed courage & skills within yourself. Above all, you discovered the joy of horsemanship. RH truly has some very fine riders.

Of course there are many moments to remember, too many to fit on this page, but let us remind you of a few from the summer of 2003:

Remember... Andreas fantastic clear round combinations with Cora; Ali & Marla demonstrating perfect flying changes on Pete; Alexia teaching Asia - what a team; Carly & Twinkles great friendship; Bandit's inquisitive nature; Shorty & the right rein; Caroline's ability to get Emma performing at her finest; Asia's fear of fly spray; Slim's long legs; Ilyse & Bandit performing all kinds of tricks; Audrey becoming Cora's best friend & the two trotting around the ring so elegantly; Emily L, Shawn, Jedla & Ilyse performing all three gaits with such expertise; the Tumbler's playing red light/green light; the Hornblower's devotion to Pete & how he became the best groomed horse in the yard thanks to Ginny; The Robindel Horse show (congrats. to all for bringing home ribbons of all colors).

Remember... Jill & Bandit's adoration for one-another; Liza riding for the first time at camp yet looking like a pro; Aubrey putting up with Twinkle & Shorty's difficult moments & proving how patience, perseverance & a little love for your steed goes a long way; Aaron & Buddy; Brandon & Buddy; Lizzy, MacKenzie, Zoe & Hannah jumping fences: the Archers playing games with Shaun; Nikole & Chuck; Angie & Chuck; Julie's perseverance with Twinkle; G&W jumping (well done to all who participated); Myles & Jack cantering; Vincent & AC happy on Shorty whatever the weather; Laila, Lauren & Tara jumping for the first time; Sophie's jumping round with Cora; trail-riding through the woods; 'Sticks'; Eliza's bumpy canter on Shorty that was 'so much fun'; the Jester's endless energy; Woody always keeping everyone entertained; Jordan G. loving Buddy's fast pace; Jordan Z. 'zipping' around the ring on Cora; Dan C.K. calmly keeping up with everyone; Kris's TNT article on all the horses & their personalities; Gustavo & his boots; Lindsay R. & Slim; Heather & Emma; 'Simon Says' with the Tumblers & Jesters; Adam & Micha both bonding with Asia; Kelsey & Claire nicely riding Pete; Katherine & Alex Wolf's dedication to Spectrum: (it must be a family thing!).

Remember when... Anna got a full circle of trot from Twinkle (Well done Anna); Elyse K. & Shorty successfully made their first round of jumps; Shaun demonstrated join-up with Pete; Libby perfected cantering; The Quills cantered for the first time; The Quills couldn't stop laughing; Danielle & Caroline took a jumping lesson with Shaun; Kris B. rode for the first time & managed to convince Brad to ride too. Remember when... Brad rode Spectrum; Ali & Alexia jumped beautifully with Pete & Asia; Michael S. was GL for the TPJ's (nice job Michael); George decided to sign up & show us what great horsemanship skills he has: The huge water fight! - Just wait till next summer!!!!

The summer of 2003 was both an enjoyable & rewarding one. Of course it couldn't have been so without the experience, dedication, hard work & good humor of the riding staff. DD, Julie, Karen, Shaun & Sophie, I cannot thank you guys enough. You were fantastic (or should I say awesome?!) - Not only did you give your all to the program & make riding a fun & enjoyable department to work in, you also made it easy for me to leave the barn for an afternoon & assist Michelle. Thank you. It was a pleasure working with you all and, despite the hard work, hot hot sun & dirty feet, I truly hope your memories are as fond as mine. Perhaps you can all be persuaded to join me at the barn once again for the summer of 2003!

And so another summer at the Robin Hood stables is brought to a close. Everyone has gone back home to prepare for the school season, the horses are on their way to their winter stables & all is quiet here at the barn. It just isn't the same! Yet, as far away as the summer of 2003 seems, remember it is only just around the corner. Can't wait to see you all again for yet another fun summer at the realm... a time & place where we will create new memories & unforgettable times! Take care & have fun, Diane. ☺

Summer of 2002 was a fine year for teaching new younger boys and girls rifle shooting skills combined with older shooters and previously learned abilities. Finishing the summer where 35,000 rounds had been fired with over 6,000 targets being submitted for scoring, 46 boys earned 122 awards and 16 girls earned 27 awards from pro marksman through standing, developing 139 levels of awards.

Starting with boys camp: 12 TPJ's came as often as possible to learn new shooting skills where 7 earned 12 different levels of awards. The most improved shooters were Sam Lee, Adam Szewczyk & Aaron Woodstein earning PM, followed by Kris Boehm who earned MM and Maxim Filion with PM & MM. The top new learners were Nicolas Messier & Andrew Cristal finishing by earning PM through MM1st (in prone).

12 Squires improved on old pre-learned skills and abilities where 7 earned 21 different levels of awards. The most improved individuals were Guillermo Sanchez & Jeremy Slossberg earning PM & MM. The next level of shooters were Aaron Haynes, Alvaro Lianza, Alex Weiss & Alex Wolf earning PM, MM & MM1st. The high shooter of the group was Alex Wolf with a 45 (in prone). The top shooter of the group was ryan globus earning from MM (in prone) through BAR 2 (sitting). Ryan Globus was also awarded Boys Junior Camp / Most Improved.

20 Archers had many that wished to excel in rifle shooting skills with 12 individuals earning 37 different levels of awards. The following awards were Zachary Rowe with PM & Jacob Szabo with PM & MM. The next three Zach Goldman, Gabriel Klein & Jordan Zipkin earned PM, MM &

MM1st. Next, Jordan Gluck earned PM through SS, Louis Cloutier with MM1st & SS, Jake Schwartz with SS & BAR 1 and ending with Harry Ehrlich earning BAR 1 (prone). Lastly George Wickey earned BAR 2 (sitting) through BAR 6 (kneeling). Then to finish the two top shooters Paul Grossman earned BAR 1 (prone) through BAR 7 (kneeling).

He was also awarded the Boys Junior Camp / Most Improved. Ryan Cristal earned BAR 5 (kneeling) through BAR 8 (standing) combined with an 92.83 shooting average and received Boys Junior Camp / Best In Camp Award.

21 Yeomen had 10 individuals earning 19 different levels of awards. Starting with the newest shooters Alex Lynn earning PM, Roger Gesswein earning PM, MM & MM1st & finalizing with older ones, Jack Friedman earning BAR 4 (sitting) and John Solomon BAR 1 (prone) through BAR 4 (sitting). Samuel Jonas ended with earning BAR 3 (sitting) through BAR 6 (kneeling). Sam also was awarded Boys Senior Camp / Most Improved Award.

23 Lancers had 7 new and older shooters who came out to shoot and earned 17 different levels of awards. Harry Raymond earned PM and Andrew Berman earned PM, MM & MM1st followed by Joshua Berman & Esteban Hernandez earning PM through SS. The higher levels earned were Adrien Trompier earning MM1st through BAR 1 (prone) and Daniel Grossman with BAR 7 (kneeling). The individual high shooter of the group was Chris Kushma shooting BAR 9 (standing). He also was awarded the Boys Senior Camp / Most Improved Award.

23 Friars had 3 older boys that came out to shoot to improve on past learned skills and earned 6 levels of awards. Douglas Bidlack earned BAR 1 (prone) through BAR 4 (sitting) and Billy Gough earned BAR 5 (kneeling) and shot a 50 (in kneeling), ending with Michael Howard earning BAR 7 (kneeling). Michael Howard also received Boys Senior Camp / Best In Camp Award.

19 Foresters had a limited few that shot. The top shooters of the group were Nick Chandler-Klein with an 85 and Kevin Margolius with a 90.

15 Saxons from time to time appeared to shoot, and developed the highest average in high shooters in camp. The top five were Craig Rudikoff with 93, Steve Porter-Bell with 94, J.C. Gough with also 94, followed by Peter Rodriguez with a 95 and Duncan Mendelsohn with a 96. Duncan Mendelsohn for highest average shooter (in prone) also received the Boys Senior Camp / Best In Camp Award.

Continuing with girls camp: 6 Tumblers had a few that enjoyed learning to shoot. These girls being Sara Friedman and Maddie Josel.

17 Jesters also enjoyed shooting a lot. The highest shooters of the group were Daniele Jacobson with a 54 and Michaela Fooksa with a 58.

21 Bows also enjoyed shooting with 7 earning 10 different levels of awards. Victoria Senter earned PM followed by Amanda Tuck who earned PM & MM with Sofia Madrazo & Aubrey King shooting BAR 1 (in prone). The highest shooters of the group were Alexandra Sartori who earned MM1st through BAR 1 (in prone) and shot a 49 and also received the Girls Junior Camp / Best In Camp Award. Allison Howard earned her BAR 5 (in kneeling) and also received Girls Junior Camp / Most Improved.

30 Quills had many that came out to shoot for fun. 4 Girls earned 8 levels of awards. Angelica Dilorenzo earned PM (in prone) with Gaby Jacobson and Lauren Rosenstein who earned PM & MM (in prone). Then Katherine Wolf, the highest shooter, earned PM, MM & MM1st (in prone).

27 Arrows had many girls that enjoyed shooting with 5 that earned 9 different levels of awards. Lindsay Reed earned MM1st, SS & BAR 1 and Sarah Szewczyk earned SS & BAR 1 (in prone). Then Hannah Globus & Alexandra Russo both earned BAR 4 (in sitting). Then working very hard, Michele Brush earned Bar 2 & BAR 3 (in sitting) and received Girls Senior Camp / Most Improved. The highest shooter of the group was Carolyn Siegel who also received Girls Senior Camp / Best In Camp Award.

OGUNQUIT BEACH DAY

OGUNQUIT BEACH DAY

SAILING DAVID GERSHENSON

What a great year this was for sailing in the Realm! With our new boats, new staff and so many new and experienced sailors who were eager to learn, the program was a guaranteed success from the start. In addition to a brand new Sunfish, Robin Hood acquired a 14'6" Hunter dinghy, which we affectionately named the "Maid Marion." Our thanks to Robyn Hoffman for the suggestion. The new Hunter proved to be a great instructional vessel as it allowed our staff to work directly with small groups on the finer points of sailing. As for Sarah Szcwzyk and whoever else I promised that the Hunter wouldn't capsize, sorry about that...

As always, the season was again filled with some great memories. I'll never forget "Shady!" sailing with the Saxons or swimming sessions with the Bows (I know, they were supposed to be sailing, but they just seemed to keep falling out... know anything about that, Jimena?). Most commonly heard quotes of the summer went to Hannah Globus with "I don't wanna tip," Paul Grossman with "Should I pull in the sail?" and James Brenner with "Back when I won BIC Sailing..." I'm still not sure if I believe that one. Other memorable characters included our youngest sailors Kris Boehm and Aaron Woodstein, who became quite good sailors in their own right, our little "Instructor" David Woodstein, and a group of rather leaky Tumblers/Jesters.

In selecting awards this year, four sailors in particular distinguished themselves above and beyond the rest. Our Progress and Achievement award for junior camp went to Dan Chandler-Klein and for senior camp to Ilyse Rikleen. Our Effort and Skill award for junior camp went to Aubrey King and for senior camp to Jason Dobry. I would also like to present a coach's award and my thanks to Jason Dobry and JC Gough who served as great Saxon aides in the department.

Finally, let me express my sincere thanks to a great staff. Emily Matthews proved to be a great instructor, John Duprey-Kasmire kept our boats beautifully maintained, and Simon Theobalds, who you'll probably remember as the canoeing guy, also provided immeasurable assistance in the sailing department. Plus, he did some good public relations work by visiting our neighbors down the channel a couple of times. To all the staff and all the campers who made sailing a great program this year, thank you. You made my coming back to the Realm a fantastic experience! - Dave Gershenson

TNT - NEWSPAPER JON POSEN

These and Those returned this year with two issues, with participation from both Junior and Senior campers.

The inaugural issue featured a Homer Simpson comic by Yeoman Josh Rowe, a report on the annual 15-and-under basketball game at the West End House by Forester Alex Rikleen, and one of the most diligently reported TNT articles that I've ever read, a report on the RH stables by Juggler Kris Boehm. Kris told us how long each horse has been at camp, and some info on their personalities—who's messy (Chuck), who likes to eat (Bandit), and who likes to be petted (Pete). I made sure to heed Kris's reporting; Pete was indeed quite friendly.

Bows Lindsay Rosenstein and Allie Sartori interviewed Lancer group leader Rick Lowe for the second issue, Yeoman Harrison Brown drew a picture of Spider-Man, and Archer David Woodstein reported on an 11-and-under playday against Birchmont. The Bards and Tumbler-Jesters faced off with top-five lists on why their respective groups are the best in camp. I preferred the Tumbler-Jesters list—"We are so huggable" just seemed more convincing than "We so aren't nebs."

Thanks to all who contributed. ☺

Camp Robin Hood tennis has come a long way, and I am sure that all of us are happy to see the progress that we have made. I am not going to lie, at the beginning of the summer I was skeptical about how well we would do in tournament play. I remember the first few sessions where Carly Schuster could barely hit the ball over, Adam Fooksa had a "one handed backhand," and Max Manin was convinced that "moon balling" is the only way to play. How happy I am that they all proved my skepticism wrong. Adam Fooksa and Sam Jonas made it to the 14 and under semifinals at Winaukee as 12 year olds. Carli Schuster and Dayna Geldwerdt made it to the semifinals at Forest Acres before it was rained out (I am convinced that they would have won). One of the most memorable moments of the summer for me was after years of work, seeing Max Manin hitting a powerful topspin forehand.

The tennis program was very fortunate to have such a qualified staff. We had two collegiate tennis players in Kate Douglas and Lee Edwards, a very qualified ex-camper who has experience in Robin Hood tennis in Gaby Collier, and two enthusiastic and fun people from England in Steve "Stevo" Bailey and Rebecca "Bex" Newsholme. Last but not least was JG's personal favorite, Rachel Baer. We also received a lot of help from the Saxons and Scribes. Scott Schwartz was the Saxon aide to tennis, while being one of the best 15 and under players, making it to the semifinals at the 15 and under at Winaukee. Andrew Arnot, David "Trucker" Morgenstern, and Sammy Ziman all deserve props for assistant coaching at many tournaments.

From Sam Lee to Sam Berschler the level of intensity, the heart, and the pride of Robin Hood were all exemplified in tournament play this year. Adam Margolius went undefeated at Indian Acres nearly leading the team to the finals. Jon Nigro and Matt Szabo left their hearts on the courts playing at Indian Acres - I don't know that I've ever been more proud. The Lancer group played with more pride than I could've asked for. Zach Frumkin went 2-1 at Indian Acres leading the team to a second place overall finish. Jon Katz and Jaime Blaustein made a strong showing at Winaukee. I could always rely on Dan Grossman to win the close matches.

TENNIS CONTINUED

The Yeomen and the Friars show the opposite ends of the tennis spectrum. The Friars came out to a rocky start at the first tournament at Winaukee, but after being benched a tournament they showed me what they were made of with Andrew Senter making it to the 14 and under semifinals at Winaukee and Andrew Cohen making it to the quarterfinals. The Yeomen were the hallmark group for consistency and hard work. John Solomon, Adam "Peaches" Fooksa, and Sam Jonas would all sign up for tennis 5 periods a day if they could, and their hard work paid off in the tournaments. They all went 2-1 at Indian Acres carrying the team to a second place finish.

As far as women's tennis is concerned I had a lot of girls really step up and come huge in a few tournaments. I could always count on Emily Stecher to hack her way through a match with grace. Libby Copeland-Halperin made huge strides in her tennis from last year. Anna Halperin had all of the shots and could play through pain like no one else (playing the entire season recovering from a broken ankle). Sam and Dana Berschler play with a mixture of passion and ferocity that is unmatched by any athlete I've seen. The Arrow group as a whole was full of great players: Annie Crane, Lexie Herman, Lauren Tuck, and Lizzy Sonenberg would all come to tennis ready to play.

A wise coach of mine once said, "execute the fundamentals in the proper sequence and you are assured success." Remember this in all sports, but think back to your tennis sessions the next time you are in trouble in a match. Think back to the 3 main aspects of the ground strokes (racquet back, step in, and follow through over your shoulder), remember to attack your volleys "boom", and of course to always "pronate" on your serves. Use these basic fundamentals in your game and I will assure all of you success. Thank you, kids of Robin Hood for all of the laps ran, balls chased after, and smiles on the tennis courts.

Thank You, Grant Rahmeyer
Head of Tennis Operations

After a year of waiting, the realm finally resounded the sound of happy campers. It was time to venture out into the beauty of New Hampshire. Waste time? Not us! Every junior camper was to visit the new outpost in the first week of camp! And that was only the beginning...!

The Outpost- Junior Camp - All of junior camp, including the PJ's, Squires, Archers Tumbler/Jesters, and Bows, had the opportunity to hop into canoes and paddle "across the lake, to the marina, through the channel, under the road, and across the lake again" to the inviting shores of Danforth Bay Campground. Once the canoes were beached and campers had explored the campsite, they headed to the sandy beach and swimming area for a dip and a splash. After all that tiring fun, campers gathered at the campsite to indulge in a fire-cooked meal of burritos or spaghetti. But the fun didn't end there—everyone made their own hot and tasty s'mores! Delicious! After all bellies were full and the sky had turned dark, the famous Drew Straus would start to tell some very, very, VERY spooky stories around the campfire. When bedtime came around the campers went back to their tents, not knowing whether the arc angel would visit or there would be a skunk waiting to cuddle in their sleeping bag!

Green Mountain - Tumblers, Jesters & PJ Squires - Wow! On both trips you worked so hard, hiking one hour up and one hour down. Those pine needles were very slippery and some of the PJ Squires slipped two steps down for every step up! But you all made it and we feasted at the top on sandwiches, cookies, chips and apples! What's more, both groups were lucky enough to meet the kind Candy Man at the top of the tower. Woody, you were brave and did a great job getting up there! Chewing the scrumptious sweets and peering out at a 360° view of the tower made the hike worthwhile for everyone. Green Mountain will always be one of our favorites!

Mount Jackson - Quills - The mighty Quills made two attempts on 4000ft Mt. Jackson. Our first group were turned back by rain at about the 2,300ft level. However our day was not lost. We checked out two very diverse biomes at the true Rocky Gorge. First we saw a raging river that had carved its way through solid rock. Then, we looked at a beautiful mountain pond less than 300 meters away. Next we visited Madison Boulder, one of the 10 largest Glacial Era tics in the world. That was one big rock! We tried to move it but even the mighty Quills had to admit that the glaciers were a might stronger than they were. Then a great swim in White Lake followed by procuring dinner at Pizza Barn.

Our second group of intrepid Quills would not be denied! Not only did they climb 4,000ft Mt. Jackson, but as we approached the summit conditions rapidly deteriorated. As we neared the steeping summit cone, not only were we climbing into an ever-darkening cloud, but winds were approaching 40 m.p.h.! What an exhilarating feeling to stand on the summit with the wind racing by. We literally had to hold on to each other to stand up and have our picture taken. I was very, very proud of you! How did we finish the day off...? Pizza Barn of course! (The Quills, you see, have a thing for Pizza Barn!).

White Lake - Arrows - We felt that a trip to White Lake was in order. We enjoyed its beautiful White Sandy beach and admired spectacular views of Mountains Passa-Conaway, Whiteface, Paugus and Chicorua. In the evening, a pizzalicious dinner at Pizza Barn rounded-off our fun day!

Windy Canoe Trip - Bows - Perhaps one of the most adventurous trips of the year belongs to that of the fearless Bows! We enthusiastically set out to have lunch at a remote location across the lake. We started with one camper and member of staff in each canoe, but strong winds blew directly in our path and made it impossible to get around the first headland! A few canoes managed to come together whilst one was blown into the swimming area and another capsized near the shore!! Thankfully, Erica and Kimberly took it in their stride and simply swam to shore to get a change of clothing... quite an experience but both of them were happy and willing to try again! The Bows, not being a group who like to be defeated, decided to re-tackle the gusty winds with two counselors and two campers in each canoe, and... SUCCESS!! Around the first headland we went and we were soon fast on our way to the channel and over the lakes. For an hour and a half we paddled hard in our little canoes. We were so proud of you that day because it was hard work, but everyone pulled together and supported each other. Everyone was enthusiastic to get to the spot, and everyone had an absolutely GREAT TIME! Singing "Hey Bows..." and other camp tunes in the canoes you really kept the momentum up and suddenly the winds were not an obstacle any more. That was one of the most enjoyable trips for everyone this year.

After all that paddling, we were certainly feeling pekkish and stopped at a haunted place for lunch! You all enjoyed that adventure very much and we can only thank Drew with all our hearts for bringing fantasy to life that day!

A Big Well Done to Lili, Marilyn, Brittany, Jimena, Virginia, Estefanie, Alexandra, Victoria, Jenny and last but certainly not least Kimberly (who turned out to be a very good swimmer!)

Mount Washington - Shires and Saxons - On Tuesday, July 9th, a stalwart group of 7 Shires set off to tackle the big one, Mt. Washington, at 6,280 feet, the highest peak in the Northeast. The weather threatened to cut short our trek. In fact we met a group from Camp Evergreen who had already turned back when we arrived at the Hermit Lake Shelters. Undeterred this rugged crew pressed on. Well, actually, we began to retreat from the driving rain, when we noticed that the weather had begun to break. At a nearby trail junction, this valiant troupe took stock of their resources and decided to attempt the steep and rugged Lion's Head Trail, skirting the famous Tuckerman's Ravine. The long and arduous hike came to an abrupt end at the foggy summit. After resupplying ourselves with food (and t-shirts) from the summit house we began our descent through the breaks in the clouds, down through Tuckerman's Ravine and back to the safety of the base. A late meal at Wendy's topped off a delightful and tiring day.

A few days later the Saxons choose to attempt the same summit. Luckily the weather was much more cooperative, and we were able to ascend via that impressive glacial cirque - Tuckerman's Ravine. A similar reward was experienced at the summit house before we ambled our way down the Lion's Head Trail to repeat the pattern the girls had set for us - fine dining at Wendys and a winding drive back home. A fine day indeed!

Mount Wildcat - Arrows - The Arrows were truly troopers on this mountain. From the bottom to the top of Mt. Wildcat, it was very steep and there were several areas where a hiker could very easily fall if they lost their footing. However, the Arrows weren't even fazed by the steep cliffs, as they were determined to reach the top! Once we finally reached the top, the group was surprised to see a gondola! And even a bigger surprise came when they discovered the wonderfully generous trips staff had enough tickets for everyone to ride down in the gondola! Great, no more hiking!! After a relaxing and scenic gondola descent we wrapped up the fun-filled day with a trip to our favorite restaurant. Any guesses where that could be? Pizza Barn of course!

Mount Willard - Tumbler Jesters - The terrific Tumblers and joyful Jesters were to climb Mount Willard, standing at an impressive 2,850 feet. We had a very enjoyable time, and everyone was very, VERY chatty! In fact, we talked so much that before we knew it we had reached the top of the mountain! We were rewarded with some remarkable views- the weather was fine and clear so we saw many miles around us. We ate some good old American PBJ's and tasty turkey sandwiches (thanks Nicky!!), and filled our bellies with chocolate chip cookies (yummy!).

Swimming in the lake later that day was wonderful- the sand was golden-white and the lake was so clear. Just what we needed after a mountain climb! What better way to round the day off than a visit to the ... PIZZA BARN!

Cold River camping- Squires. The fun-loving Squires were fortunate to be the only group to go on an adventurous overnight camping trip at Cold River Campground in Maine! After setting up the tents we conquered the mountain, with great views at the top. It was a tricky climb because of the long rock slabs we overcame. The slabs had little traction, but the mighty Squires climbed up like mountain goats!! After our strenuous climb, we headed back down and to the campsite. That night, we cooked up a king's feast of steak and hot dogs. It tasted great and gave energy for the strong Squires to go for a swim at the stunning Emerald pool. After a miles hike in, we were all blown away by the beauty of Emerald Pools' sparkling green waters. A group of Squires including Mark, Vincent, Bruno, Ryan, Alvaro, Juan, Daniel, Jeremy, Alex Weiss and Alex Wolf found a high cliff to jump off into the pool. Emerald Pool was definitely the highlight of the trip. The Squires were refreshed after the swim and ready for more fun. We headed back to camp for a delicious dessert of s'mores and scary stories. The next morning we packed up in record time, thanks to help from the mighty Squires, and headed to the Golden Arches where we started the day with a smile.

Baxter State Park Bonding Expedition - Saxons n' Scribes - On Sunday, July 21st, we enthusiastically boarded the mini-van for the long, hot journey to the stunning wilderness of Baxter State Park! The courageous campers consisted of Steve "Fright in the Night" Porter-Bell, Adam "Runs Down Mountains" Stone, JC "The Best Cook in Town" Gough, Duncan "Ice Cream" Mendlesohn, Scott "Blisters" Schwartz, Eli "The Pasta Pro" Fuchsberg, Samantha "Hey, Let's climb!" Berschler and Gillian "I Hate Spiders!" Reitman. The splendid staff consisted of David "Freaky" Friedman, Heather "The Moose" Downing and Jane "The Bear" Sear!

TRIPCRAFTS CONTINUED

As we entered Baxter State Park we experienced the long, hot and dusty drive towards Nesowadnehunk Campground. After the Ranger had given Freaky "a good telling" about all the rules and regulations of the park, and Heather had been attacked by giant ants, we were free to play in the beautiful Nesowadnehunk stream... Yee-haaa!

For dinner, steaks, burgers and hot dogs were on the menu. We were too full even to consume s'mores! Stevenson and JC had a hilariously funny shock that night when they came face to face with a deer, and we have never seen them run faster!!

A bright and early 5AM start greeted us the next morning so we could drive to the one and only, mighty Mount Katahdin! Tired but excited, we prepared ourselves with Cheerios for breakfast and filled our water bottles high. We crammed our packs with bags of gorpe, which were to be our energy for the next ten hours. Then, in the finest, clearest weather possible we began our ascent of Maine's highest "hill", standing tall at a respectable 5,267 feet.

And Oh Boy, what a climb it was! As we neared the summit the terrain across which we crossed was magnificent. Helping each other we used our whole bodies to pull ourselves over large boulders, creatively moving over, under, around and in between the rocks, crawling (and sliding!) along on our hand and bottoms... It was a fantastic experience for all!

After five hours of climbing we reached the dream-like summit, surrounded in clouds we were high in the sky! After taking some photographs (proving that we had made it!), we sat on a sheer cliff-like edge with a sharp drop. We had incredible views over the mountain and of the park. So there we all sat, munching a very civilized lunch of cheese and biscuits, with mango chutney so lovingly carried to the top by Freaky! The rocks were not uncomfortable, and we began to make ourselves at home... Just a short nap... hmmm... ahhhh... dzzzzz... snore... Until JC woke up with a nasty surprise! After nearly rolling off the mountain in his sleep, he decided to wait until we reached the safety of the parkland before taking another nap!!

After a sure and steady descent, we once again went to play and bathe in the refreshing stream, we hungrily ate our dinner and we sleepily clambered into our tents...

After a lie-in the next morning, we feasted on burnt pancakes. Despite the drizzling rain we decided to climb Double Top Mountain at 3,498 foot, having never been conquered by Robin Hooder's before! We were so proud of you guys!! Well, what can we say? A slippery, slidey, sloppy walk for the next five hours pursued, in misty wet weather and to the sound of thunder rolling around our ears. However, we made it, and spent an admirable thirty seconds at the summit! It was not easy, and everyone was tired. There was no view at the top, being entirely surrounded by the clouds. However, we did it as a group all together. A big well done to all of you!

That evening, we had a scrumptious meal of pasta and cheese-cake, and we even had time for s'mores! (and plenty of them!). We spent a truly memorable evening by the campfire telling some pretty scary stories... We will always be on the lookout for One Eyed Joe, and we will always be giggling at Freaky's revealing secrets!! (although we cannot reveal them here!).

Tired and exhausted we clambered into our tents... Only to find a spider infestation in the girls tent! Yikes! They were everywhere - all eight legged and creepy! That night we tried not to have nightmares!

Next morning we awoke to find a muddy moose searching for food in the campground stream. He didn't seem bothered to see us, but it was a wonderful experience for us to see him. It was the end of a truly memorable moose-tastic camping trip to the wilderness of the wonderful Baxter State Park! - Drew Strauss, Heather Downing and Jane Sear ☺

On a hot and humid June day, campers arrived at the Robin Hood waterfront for the 75th season. Warm water and good weather allowed for a busy and successful summer.

The following swimmers earned Red Cross Certificates this summer:

Stroke Readiness: Maxim Filion, Priscila Pedre, Brandon Taylor.

THE 2002 SWIMMING AWARDS EFFORT AND SKILL

Junior Camp	Jill Kozloff, Amanda Tuck
Senior Camp	Ethan Lieberman, Lindsay Reed
Progress and Achievement	Sam Lee

The waterfront ran smoothly due to the efforts of the staff. Many thanks to Vickie, Jenn, Christina, Megan and Andy for a job well done. Have a safe and happy year, Robin Hood. ☺

Another summer arrived at the Robin Hood Ski department. Back for another summer was Konrad "The Hog Weatherhogg," Mike "Queen" Aquino; from way down under was Travis "Cable Guy" Boulton and last but not least Toshi "Right on baby" Burchette. I would like to thank everyone for all the hard work you put in; you made my job much easier and made the summer run very smoothly. The weather this summer was very good and though the increased boat traffic on the lake made it difficult for skiing at times, everyone still made the most of being out on the water. Almost all of the campers who regularly visited water-skiing this summer showed massive improvement in their chosen disciplines. We had quite a few skiers making the breakthrough from two skis to one, including Jonathan Katz, Billy Gough, Douglas Bidlack, Andrew Klein, and Mandy McTyre. Many campers also made the progression from the boom to the rope and some of them even began to learn the basics of slalom skiing. Wakeboarding was as popular as ever again this summer, with Adrien Trompier, Teddy Newmyer, Taylor Lesser, Andrew Arnot, Scott Heller, Stevenson Porter-Bell and Duncan Mendelsohn all showing great improvement. In the kneeboard division Lisa Mann and Matt Brody went from strength to strength, pulling off 360s with ease, as well as many of the junior campers making great progress on the kneeboard. Well done to Craig Freifelder for sticking in there and not giving up and being able to get up on the kneeboard.

Awards this year as follows;

- Waterski Effort and Skill - Jaime Blaustein and Andrew Senter
Progress and Achievement - Douglas Bidlack
- Wakeboard Effort and Skill - Adam Stone
Progress and Achievement - Stevenson Porter-Bell and Duncan Mendelsohn
- Kneeboard Effort and Skill - Lisa Mann
Progress and Achievement - Craig Freifelder

Onto a few remember when's: remember when Douglas was able to slalom on either leg forward? Remember Aquino Slalom skiing? And Konrad how did that rope end up like that? Remember the Doc and the mirror, remember the Bows tubing? Remember Toshi and the ocean potion? Remember the waterski staff's collection of HO'S? Remember when Trucker's shorts came down?

After many years service we finally say goodbye to the tan boat which will be retired at the end of the summer. Well, I'm off on my travels. May everyone have a good winter and I will hopefully see everyone next summer. Cheers, Michael Stringer ☺☺
